STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

LEGISLATIVE BILL 445. Placed on General File as amended.
Standing Committee amendments to LB 445:

1. Strike section 1 and insert:

"Section 1. That section 79-1522, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

79-1522. (1) Upon retirement under the provisions of sections 79-1520 and 79-1521, if he has five or more years of creditable service, a member or emeritus member shall receive a school retirement allowance which shall consist of the sum of: (a) A savings annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent, as determined by the retirement board, of the member's accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement, or, in the case of an emeritus member, the savings annuity fixed by the retirement board at the time of his original retirement; and (b) a service annuity to be paid by the State of Nebraska. The amount of any individual service annuity for a full-time school employee or emeritus member shall be ~~one and one-half dollars per month for each year of service prior to July 1, 1968~~, ~~except that the amount of any individual service annuity for a full-time school employee or emeritus member who retired on or before January 1, 1955, and not then~~

~~eligible for social security benefits, shall be two dollars and twenty-five cents per month for each year of service. The amount of any individual service annuity for a full-time school employee shall be three dollars per month for each year of service thereafter.~~ three dollars per month for each year of service commencing with his retirement on or after July 1, 1973. Each school employee or emeritus member who retired before July 1, 1973 and who is receiving a service annuity as of that date shall have such service annuity increased to equal three dollars monthly annuity per year of service, based on the same number of years of service that is currently being used to determine his service annuity. Such increased service annuity shall commence on July 1, 1973.

(2) Under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, an employee, upon becoming a member, may receive credit for not to exceed ten years of creditable teaching service rendered in public schools in another state if such member shall have paid into the school retirement system of the State of Nebraska an amount equal to the required deposits he would have paid had he been employed in this state, with such required deposits to be paid as the board may direct within three years after membership in the retirement system begins.

(3) A member who retires as a school employee of this state shall not receive credit for time in service outside of this state in excess of the time he has been in service as a school employee in this state. In order to receive such out of state credit such member must be employed as a school employee in this state at the time of his retirement.

(4) For a beneficiary who is employed as a public school substitute employee for more than ninety days in any school year the state service annuity shall be reduced by fifty per cent; Provided, a person receiving a retirement benefit may waive the payments and return to regular employment in a public school of this state if the beneficiary shall notify the retirement board in advance of the time and place of such employment. This notice shall be in writing upon forms prescribed by the retirement board. Any person collecting retirement payments without filing such notice shall be subject to a withholding of future retirement benefits equal to twice the amount collected after being regularly employed. The amount of individual service annuity for a part-time employee shall be determined on a proportional basis.

Sec. 2. That original section 79-1522, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, is repealed.

Sec. 3. Since an emergency exists, this act shall be in full force and take effect, from and after its passage and approval, according to law.".

Opinion No. 37
April 9, 1973

Senator David H. Stahmer
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

You have asked for an opinion as to the constitutionality of Senator Barnett's amendment to L. B. 207. You also indicate that you are concerned that the amendment, if passed, might deprive children of life-saving medical treatment.

The amendment which was apparently prepared for Senator Barnett by a representative of Christian Science Committee on Publication for Nebraska, is as follows:

> "(4) No child who in good faith is being provided with treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer in accordance > with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denomination shall, for that reason alone, be deemed to be endangered under any provision of this Act."

It is our opinion that the constitutionality of the amendment, if enacted, would be very doubtful.

No case directly on point was found. Though it is true religious beliefs cannot be interfered with by the state, certain practices of these beliefs must succumb to the inherent power of a state to protect the health and welfare of its citizens. This is particularly true in the case of children and incompetent individuals. The state, as parens patriae, may restrict the rights of parents as well as rights of religion in order to perform its inherent sovereign duty to protect those not capable of protecting themselves. It must be kept in mind that the purpose of the rule of parens patriae is not to interfere with the religious belief but is rather designed to interfere with certain religious practices if these practices interfere with the health and welfare of children or anyone else for that matter.

The constitutional provisions in regard to religion are the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 4, of the Nebraska Constitution. The former is as follows:

> "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; . . ."

The Nebraska constitutional provision is:

> "All persons have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences. No person shall be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship against his consent, and no preference shall be given by law to any religious society, nor shall any interference with the rights of conscience be permitted. No religious test shall be required as a qualification for office, nor shall any person be incompetent to be a witness on account of his religious beliefs; but nothing herein shall be construed to dispense with oaths and affirmations. Religion, morality, and knowledge, however, being essential to good government, it shall be the duty of the Legislature to pass suitable laws to protect every religious denomination in the peaceable enjoyment of its own mode of public worship, and to encourage schools and the means of instruction."

In 1878 the United States Supreme Court decided for the first time that the freedom of religion clause guaranteed freedom of religious belief, but not necessarily freedom of religious practice. In Reynolds v. United States, 98 U. S. 145, 25 L. Ed. 244(1878), Reynolds was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, commonly called the Mormon Church. One of the doctrines of his faith required him to practice polygamy when circumstances permitted and if he neglected to so practice the penalty would be "damnation in the life to come." Congress had passed a law which had prohibited polygamous marriages. (Nebraska has a similar law in Section 28-903, R. R. S 1943.) Reynolds was convicted and on appeal to the United States Supreme Court he defended his action on the ground that it was his absolute religious belief and duty to have two wives. This is what the Court said:

> ". . . Laws are made for the government of actions, and while they cannot interfere with mere religious belief and opinions, they may with practices. Suppose one believed that human sacrifices were a necessary part of religious worship, would it be seriously contended that the civil government under which he lived could not interfere to prevent a sacrifice? Or if a wife religiously believed it was her duty to burn herself upon the funeral pile of her dead husband, would it be beyond the power of the civil government to prevent her carrying her belief into practice?
> "So here, as a law of the organization of society under the exclusive dominion of the United States, it is provided that plural marriages shall not be allowed. Can a man excuse his practices to the contrary because of his religious belief? To permit this would be to make the professed doctrines of religious belief superior to the law of the land, and in effect to permit every citizen to become a law unto himself. Government could exist only in name under such circumstances."

In Prince v. Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 321 U. S. 158, 88 L. Ed. 645, 64 S. Ct. 438 (1944), Sarah Prince was convicted of violating the Child Labor laws by allowing a nine year old ward of hers to sell the "Watchtower" and "Consolation." These were publications of Jehovah's Witnesses. Both Prince and the nine year old girl believed the selling of these publications was their duty as Witnesses as a method of preaching the gospel and the failure to do so would bring condemnation "to everlasting destruction at Armageddon."

In upholding the conviction the court said:

> "But the family itself is not beyond regulation in the public interest, as against a claim of religious liberty. . . . And neither rights of religion nor rights of parenthood are beyond limitation. Acting to guard the general interest in youth's well being, the state as parens patriae may restrict the parent's control by requiring school attendance, regulating or prohibiting the child's labor, and in many other ways. Its authority is not nullified merely because the parent grounds his claim to control the child's course of conduct on religion or conscience. Thus, he cannot claim freedom from compulsory vaccination of the child more > than for himself on religious grounds. The right to practice religion freely does not include liberty to expose the community or the child to communicable disease or the latter to ill health or death. . . . The catalogue need not be lengthened. It is sufficient to show what indeed appellant hardly disputes, that the state has a wide range of power for limiting parental freedom and authority in things affecting the child's welfare; and that this includes, to some extent, matters of conscience and religious conviction."

In Hoener v. Bertinato, 67 N. J. Super. 517, 171 A. 2d 140 (1961), the New Jersey court required the religious beliefs of parents to yield to the duty of the state to protect its citizens. Mrs. Bertinato had a blood condition known as RH negative and she was about to give birth to a child. The undisputed medical testimony was that the child would die shortly after the birth unless the child received a blood transfusion. The Bertinatos both testified:

> ". . . as Jehovah's Witnesses, if they consented, they would be breaking the commands of their faith which prohibit any taking or injection of blood, and that the strength of their belief was such that, even if it meant that the baby could not survive without the transfusions, they would, and could, not consent thereto. . ."

The court entered an order giving custody of the child, when born, to the county welfare department with authority to consent to a transfusion.

On the matter of religious freedom and the obligations of the state the court said:

> "Laws are made for the government of actions. While they cannot constitutionally interfere with mere religious beliefs and opinions, they may interfere with religious practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state--here, the protection of the lives and health of its children. . ."

Then, quoting from Prince, supra, the court said:

> " 'The right to practice religion freely does not include liberty to expose the community or the child to communicable disease or the latter to ill health or death* * * Parents may be free to become martyrs themselves. But it does not follow they are free, in identical circumstances, to make martyrs of their children before they have reached the age of full and legal discretion when they can make that choice for themselves'."

The New Jersey court reached a similar conclusion in regard to an infant already born in State v. Perricone, 37 N.J. 463, 181 A. 2d 751 (1962). Relying on Prince, supra, the court said:

> "Neither rights of religion nor rights of parenthood are beyond limitation."

Other cases reaching like conclusions can be found in 12 A.L.R. 2d 1047, and 30 A.L.R. 2d 1138.

In conclusion, it is our opinion that the state cannot abrogate, in the name of religion, its inherent duty as parens patriae with respect to children and others not capable of caring for themselves.

Very truly yours,

Opinion No. 38
April 9, 1973

Senator Wally Barnett
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

You have requested our opinion as to the effect of the Lewis General File amendment to Legislative Bill 180. This amendment deletes the language from Section 81-502 by virtue of which the Life Safety Code was adopted; and, in lieu thereof, the amendment provides that the Fire Marshal may adopt rules and regulations generally conforming to the standards recommended by the Life Safety Code.

We believe that the Fire Marshal, under the amendment, lawfully could promulgate and enforce as rules and regulations various provisions similar to some of those contained in the Life Safety Code. However, in our opinion, the Fire Marshal could not adopt all provisions of the Code in toto. The rule-making authority of the Fire Marshal is limited by Section 81-502 to certain specifically enumerated conditions and situations, the scope of which is considerably more narrow than the range of subjects covered by the Life Safety Code.

The amendment also restricts enforcement of the Fire Marshal's rules and regulations in cases where "doing so would impose an unduly severe or costly burden without substantially contributing to safety of persons or property." Just what would constitute such an unduly severe or costly burden could become quite nebulous matter to determine. Nevertheless, we doubt that the language is so vague as to render the provision incapable of understanding and application.

We find no reported court decision involving precisely this type of statutory language. However, there are a number of cases involving essentially synonymous wording in which the courts seem to experience no particular difficulty by way of interpretation and application of the statutory provision. In Safer v. City of Jacksonville, 237 So. 2d 8, the court found that the term "undue hardship" was susceptible of legal interpretation based upon the facts of a given case and that the use of such term in the municipal housing code provision granting to the Board of Adjustment the right to grant relief against strict or literal enforcement did not invalidate the provision. In Lovely v. Zoning Bd. of Appeals, 259 A. 2d 666, the court said that the phrase "undue hardship" as used in a statute providing for appeals from decisions of the Zoning Board of Appeals, should be equated with the phrase "unnecessary hardship," which means any hardship suffered by an applicant as a result of the interference with his right to use his property, without commensurate public advantage. In Beerman v. City of Kettering, 237 N.E. 2d 644, the court declared that "undue hardship" refers to a hardship peculiar to the situation of the zoning applicant, which is of such a degree of severity that its imposition is not necessary to carry out the spirit of the ordinance and amounts to a substantial and unnecessary injustice to the applicant. As is indicated by these court decisions, each case would necessarily have to be decided upon the basis of its particular factual setting.

Very truly yours,

UNANIMOUS CONSENT–Print in Journal

Mr. Marvel asked unanimous consent to have the following letter relative to LB 235A printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Honorable Richard L. Marvel
Chairman, Appropriations Committee
Nebraska Legislature
Room 2028, State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator Marvel:

This will confirm the statements made by Mr. Robert D. McManus, Assistant Regional Director, Region VII, DHEW, to you and Senator Terry Carpenter, Chairman, Nebraska Legislative Executive Board on Tuesday, April 3, 1973, in response to your questions regarding Federal participation in the funding of the Nebraska AFDC welfare program.

You asked if the Federal government could reduce or eliminate Federal participation in the funding of the AFDC program. The Federal government cannot reduce, eliminate, or impound funds intended for the Federal share of expenditures for assistance payments (Title IV A) and payments for medical services (Title XIX) without act of Congress. The Federal government is obligated to appropriate sufficient funds to cover the Federal share of these expenditures as determined by the application of the pertinent sections of the Social Security Act.

The Federal share of expenditures for these programs is set forth by formula in the Social Security Act and cannot be altered except by congressional action.

I have discussed this matter with Mr. Paul Cacioppo, Regional Attorney, Region VII, DHEW and he concurs with this funding.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Max M. Mills
Regional Director

Chairman, Nebraska Legislative Board
Lincoln, Nebraska

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINION

Opinion No. 39
April 9, 1973

Senator J. James Waldron
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Waldron:

In your letter of inquiry you state that you are contemplating the introduction of certain legislation to place the supervision and control of educational service units under the State Department of Education. In connection therewith you have propounded two questions, which are hereinafter discussed.

Your first question is whether the above cited constitutional provision grants to the State Department of Education the supervision of the educational service units, making your proposed legislation unnecessary.

In School Dist. No. 8 v. State Board of Education, 176 Neb. 722, 127 N. W. 2d 458 (1964), the court stated:

> "* * *. The general supervision and administration of the school system of the state by the State Department of Education is thereby a constitutional grant of power dependent only upon implementing legislative action." (176 Neb. at 726.)

We are therefore of the opinion that implementing legislation would be necessary if the supervision and control of educational service units is to be placed under the Department of Education. See, School Dist. No. 8 v. State Board of Education, supra.

Your second question is whether section 2 of Article VII of the Constitution of Nebraska grants to the Commissioner of Education any authority or control over the educational service units without further legislation? No. The Commissioner of Education has only such legal "powers and duties as the Legislature may direct." See, section 4 of Article VII of the Constitution of Nebraska.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, April 10, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> O Lord our God: We pray once more—but sometimes we wonder what's left to pray for, because we've said it all so many times before, and we don't want to wear thin our welcome.
> And sometimes we are unwilling to accept the answer to our prayer, because it is not what we have been expecting.
> Yet we continue in this Legislature to feel the burden of being the few who act for the many on matters of importance, and we do need to have our spirits uplifted and held close to the heart of the Eternal, if only for a brief moment each day.
> We have been aware of Your Presence, O God, even though we may not always have acted as if You were here.

RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 31.

WHEREAS, there is pending in the House of Representatives of the United States HR 6168 which proposes, among other things, to roll livestock prices back to the level of January 10, 1973, and to regulate the export of hides; and

WHEREAS, the enactment of HR 6168 would have a disastrous effect on the economy of Nebraska and other midwestern states in which the livestock industry is a major factor by forcing a reduction in livestock prices; and

WHEREAS, the enactment of HR 6168 would discourage the production of livestock with a resulting shortage of meat for human consumption; and

WHEREAS, it is expected that HR 6168 will come to a vote in the House of Representatives on Wednesday, April 11, 1973.

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY—APRIL 11, 1973

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE FIRST SESSION

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Wednesday, April 11, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> Almighty and all merciful God; source of all life; Father of all spirits; author of all good: we begin this important day in prayer—not because we are worthy, but because we are needy. We confess that the problems we have come to consider are ours—they are man-made; but whatever the ability we have to solve them, it is not ours; it must be God-given!
> Somehow make us equal to the large demands of the present hour. Lest we become timid in the face of criticism, remind us that our citizens don't sit in the seats of responsibility which have been assigned to us. Lest we become complacent in the face of our authority, remind us that if anything we decide here is in fact to happen, it is the tax-payer who must do it. Amen.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Proud presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> For ties that continue to bind us together, even when the going is rough; for common purposes we continue to recognize as larger than we are, even when the business at hand taxes our patience and our constituents; for the privilege of sharing in the inspirations—as well as the frustrations—of events which make headlines . . . causing folks back home to smile, or to stop smiling; for the conviction we share that what helps our district helps our state; and what helps our state helps people; and what helps people is always right; for anything that may happen during today's session to deepen this conviction, and give it practical application; we now ask Your help, O Lord our God. Amen.

Opinion No. 40
April 12, 1973

Senator Ramey C. Whitney
Nebraska State Legislature
State House
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

You have requested our opinion concerning issues relative to L. B. 55, Nebraska Legislature, 83rd Legislature, 1st Session (1973). This bill would amend Section 84-1317, R. R. S., 1943, to require the retirement of certain state employees at age 65, where such employees may now continue their state employment if the employing department approves. Your questions, and our comments follow:

> 1. Will this prevent persons from running for the Legislature if they exceed 72 years of age?

No. Members of the Legislature are not subject to the State Employees Retirement Act. Further, the mandatory retirement requirements of Section 84-1317, as proposed by L. B. 55, are expressly not applicable to elected officials.

> 2. If a Senator becomes 72 while serving as a Legislator will he be required as a state employee to resign?

No. Our reasons are the same as for our answers to your first question.

> 3. Does the Legislature have the authority to require employees of constitutional agencies to retire as of a given age?

Article IV, Sec. 1, Constitution of Nebraska, provides in part:

> "* * *. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the heads of the various executive or civil departments shall have power to appoint and remove all subordinate employees in their respective departments."

Arguably, this section would forbid legislative restrictions upon the authority of a state officer to hire persons over sixty-five. However, we are not pursuaded by the argument. The Legislature has provided maximum ages for judges, including judges holding constitutionally established offices and the Nebraska Supreme Court has upheld this system, though without considering the issue of the Legislature's authority to require such retirement. See Wilson v. Marsh, 162 Neb. 237, 73 N. W. 2d 723. In Gossman v. State Employees Retirement System, 177 Neb. 326, 129 N. W. 2d 97, the Court did not expressly discuss the Article IV, Sec. 1 issues, but did say, Id., at 341:

> "Lastly, plaintiff attacks various provisions in the Act setting up conditions as to age, length of qualifying service, and a requirement for full-time employment. To adopt plaintiff's contentions in these respects would be for the court to substitute its judgment as to State employment policy for that of the Legislature. The State and the Legislature are here acting as an employer where broad economic and competitive conditions may exist. It must have broad discretion as to conditions of employment and as to conditions, classifications, and membership in retirement plans. Lines must be drawn as to age, length of service, and other conditions. The apparent inequity of discriminating between one just below or above the lines does not destroy the validity of the classifications attacked or prevent its enforcement. * * *."

We have found no other decision which would be persuasive on the present issue. Thus, we cannot advise you that the Legislature cannot establish an age of mandatory retirement for state employees.

> 4. Even though employees of the Legislature are not excluded from L. B. 55 does the Legislature have the authority to hire persons over 72 years of age?

We understand that employees of the Legislature are currently considered to be subject to the State Employees Retirement System. Nothing in L. B. 55 would exempt such employees from the same provisions as are applicable to other state employees. The mandatory retirement age is sixty-five, and no person could be employed who was in excess of this age.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 41
April 12, 1973

Senator Ramey C. Whitney
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Whitney:

In your letter of April 10, 1973, you ask our opinion as to the constitutionality of L.B. 445, as amended by the Standing Committee amendments. We believe that it would be difficult to sustain the validity of this bill, as amended.

At present, Section 79-1522, R.R.S. 1943, provides for a service annuity to retired school employees ranging from one and one-half dollars per month for each year of service to three dollars per month for each year of service. The various classifications are set forth in that section. The proposed amendment would provide in part:

> ". Each school employee or emeritus member who retired before July 1, 1973 and who is receiving a service annuity as of that date shall have such service annuity increased to equal three dollars monthly annuity per year of service, based on the same number of years of service that is currently being used to determine his service annuity. Such increased service annuity shall commence on July 1, 1973."

Article III, Section 19 of the Nebraska Constitution provides in part:

> "The Legislature shall never grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent, or servant after the services have been rendered nor to any contractor after the contract has been entered into, except that retirement benefits of retired public officers and employees may be adjusted to reflect changes in the cost of living and wage levels that have occurred subsequent to the date of retirement, ***."

In Wilson v. Marsh, 162 Neb. 235, 75 N. W. 2d 723, the Court held that if the services are rendered and terminated before the grant of retirement benefits is made the benefits awarded are not compensation but a gratuity, and hence would be forbidden by the above quoted constitutional prohibition against granting extra compensation after the services have been rendered.

As you will note, an express exception has been made to this constitutional provision as it applies to retirement benefits of retired public officers and employees. However, the exception authorizes adjustments only to "reflect changes in the cost of living and wage levels that have occurred subsequent to the date of retirement." The amendment to L.B. 445 dealing with increases in the service annuity of retired employees is in no way tied to changes in the cost of living or wage levels since the retirement of the employees, and as a matter of fact, in making it uniformly applicable to all such retired employees, regardless of the date of retirement, obviously could not reflect such changes. To illustrate, the same increase would be given to a retired employee who retired the day before the effective date of the act as would be given to an employee who retired in 1950. The constitutional provision contemplates adjustments reflecting changes subsequent to the date of the retirement of the individual employee, so a blanket, uniform adjustment could, in our opinion, never come within the exceptions spelled out in Article III, Section 19.

COMMUNICATIONS

Honorable Terry Carpenter, Chairman
Legislative Council Executive Board
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Carpenter:

The State Building Commission, at the April 6, 1973 meeting, reviewed your March 29, 1973 motion requesting a timetable for the various steps in the planning and construction of the State Office Building. I am writing this letter at the instruction of the Commission to advise you concerning your request.

The Commission unanimously assures the Executive Board and the Legislature that we will proceed as quickly as possible, and with prudence on this very important project. The Commission further assures you that careful and serious consideration will be given to the alternatives of revising the existing plans versus developing a new design. This is especially important since LB 447 requires that the rentable space in the Office Building be at least 80%.

The City of Lincoln was represented at the April 6th meeting by City Attorney Dick Wood. Mr. Wood was given verbal authority by the Building Commission to request the Lincoln City Council to proceed to prepare the required ordinance to authorize the issuance of bonds to finance the project as provided in LB 447. For your information, I enclose a copy of the Commission's written confirmation to the City of Lincoln.

The Commission has authorized employment of a Project Director to coordinate this project, and requested the Department of Administrative Services to update the 1968 Ebasco space study for the Office Building. The Commission expects to meet about the first week in May to review space needs and give further consideration to the two alternatives concerning use of existing plans or having new plans drawn. It is expected that a consultant will be selected and authorized to proceed before July 1st. After completed plans have been developed, six weeks will be required to receive bids, and the construction period will be about 34 months.

The Commission will keep the Legislature fully advised of the status and progress of this project and welcomes recommendations and comments on this important project.

Sincerely,

STATE BUILDING COMMISSION

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 42
April 13, 1973

Senator Wallace (Wally) Barnett
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Barnett:

You have requested our opinion as to the following questions, were the Lewis General File amendment to Legislative Bill 180 adopted:

> "1. Will the Fire Marshal's office have any authority to promulgate Rules and Regulations in:
> (a) nursing homes
> (b) homes for the aged and infirmed
> (c) jails
> "2. Does the Fire Marshal's office have authority to promulgate Rules and Regulations regarding any other fire protection practices other than, 'electricity, heating and means and adequacy of exits,' as stated in 81-502 3-C? Are these items listed below exempt from promulgation?
> (a) alarm systems
> (b) sprinkler systems
> (c) fire retardent materials
> (d) floor separation
> (e) room separation
> (f) high hazard protection
> (g) construction
> (h) emergency lighting
> (i) extinguishers
> etc."

The amendment deletes from Section 81-502 the language by virtue of which the Life Safety Code was adopted; and, in lieu thereof, the amendment provides that the Fire Marshal may adopt rules and regulations "generally conforming to the standards recommended by the Life Safety Code."

As we stated in our letter to you of April 6, 1973, we believe that, under this amendment, the Fire Marshal lawfully could promulgate and enforce as rules and regulations some provisions similar to those contained in the Life Safety Code. However, it is our opinion that the Fire Marshal could not blanket adopt all of the provisions of the Code. The rule-making authority of the Fire Marshal seems to be limited by Section 81-502 to those certain specifically enumerated conditions and situations, the scope of which is considerably more narrow than the range of subjects which is covered by the Life Safety Code. If the amendment were construed as authority for the Fire Marshal to adopt regulations generally conforming to the Life Safety Code with respect to matters not specifically mentioned in Section 81-502, it would appear to constitute an unlawful delegation of legislative power to an administrative officer. See Lincoln Dairy Co. v. Finigan, 170 Neb. 777.

While we recognize that Section 81-502 purports to give the Fire Marshal the authority to promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the very broad subject of "prevention of fires," we interpret this to have reference to regulations designed to eliminate the starting or outbreaking of fires, as distinguished from regulations designed for such purposes as the detection, extinguishing, retarding or controlling of fires once started. With the possible exception of items (f) and (g) in your second question, it is our belief that the Fire Marshal would have no authority to promulgate rules with respect to the various matters enumerated in your second question, insomuch as they are not matters enumerated in Section 81-502 and would appear not to come within the purview of "fire prevention," as previously discussed. As to items (f) and (g), we presume that there might be some measures relating to high hazard protection and structural design which could be said to minimize the chances of fire occurring; and, to that extent, they probably would be a proper subject for regulation under Section 81-502; but it is not possible to enumerate all conceivable such possibilities.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER

LEGISLATIVE BILL 286. Placed on General File as amended.
Standing Committee amendmentsto LB 286:

1. Strike sections 1 to 8 and insert the following:

"Section 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares:

(1) That the protection of the mental and physical health and life of all pregnant women in Nebraska and the unborn human life with which they are pregnant is of vital interest and concern to the State of Nebraska. The purpose of this act is to preserve and protect the physical and mental health and life of pregnant women and the health of the unborn human life with which they are pregnant. The Legislature further finds that the lack of experience in Nebraska with respect to abortion requires that strict regulations, controls, and procedures be implemented to protect the health, both physical and mental, of the pregnant woman.

(2) That current judicial and medical professional remedies to protect the life, health and welfare of pregnant women and unborn human life are grossly inadequate.

(3) That it is in the interest of the people of the State of Nebraska to maintain accurate statistical data to aid in providing proper maternal health regulations.

Sec. 2. As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) Abortion shall mean an act, procedure, device, or prescription administered to or prescribed for a pregnant woman by any person, including the pregnant woman herself, with either the intent or result of producing the premature explusion, removal, or termination of the human life within the womb of the pregnant woman;

(2) Hospital shall mean those institutions licensed by the State Board of Health pursuant to sections 71-2017 to 71-2029, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, and amendments thereto;

(3) Consent shall mean a signed and witnessed voluntary agreement to the performance of an abortion;

(4) Physician shall mean any person licensed to practice medicine in this state as provided in sections 71-102 to 71-110, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, and amendments thereto;

(5) Pregnant shall mean that condition of a woman who has unborn human life within her as the result of conception;

(6) Conception shall mean the fecundation of the ovum by the spermatozoa;

(7) Viability shall mean that stage of human development when the life of the unborn child may be continued by natural or life-support systems outside the womb of the mother; and

(8) Accepted medical procedures shall mean procedures of the type and performed in a manner and in a facility which is equipped with surgical, anaesthetic, resuscitation, and laboratory equipment sufficient to meet the standards of medical care which physicians in the same neighborhood or in similar communities, engaged in the same or similar lines of work, would ordinarily exercise and devote to the benefit of their patients.

Sec. 3. Every physician consulted about abortion by an expectant mother shall inform her of agencies and services available to assist her to carry the pregnancy to natural term, and shall further inform the expectant mother as to all reasonably possible medical and mental consequences resulting from the performance of an abortion.

Sec. 4. Any physician who fails to comply with the provisions contained in section 3 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 5. No abortion shall be performed or prescribed after the unborn child has reached viability, except when necessary to preserve the woman from an imminent peril that substantially endangers her life or health.

Sec. 6. No abortion procedure or act shall be employed or prescribed after the unborn child has reached viability, which procedure has the direct or indirect effect of terminating the viability of the unborn child prior to, during, or following the abortion, except when necessary to preserve the woman from an imminent peril that substantially endangers her life or health.

Sec. 7. Any physician or other person who violates any provision of section 5 or 6 of this act shall be guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex for a period not less than one year and not more than five years.

Sec. 8. No abortion shall be performed or prescribed on any minor child in the State of Nebraska without her written consent and the consent of the parent or guardian of such minor child.

Sec. 9. No abortion shall be performed or prescribed on any woman except when necessary to preserve the woman from an imminent peril that substantially endangers her life or health, who has not previously submitted to the physician in attendance a written statement by the father of the unborn human life, if the father is known, affirming his consent to the performance of the abortion. If the father is unknown, the woman requesting the abortion shall so affirm in writing to the physician in attendance.

Sec. 10. Any physician or other person who performs or prescribes an abortion without the consents required in sections 8 and 9 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than six months and not more than one year.

Sec. 11. Any person other than a licensed physician who performs or prescribes an abortion shall be guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex for a period not less than one year and not more than five years.

Sec. 12. Any person who performs or prescribes an abortion by using anything other than accepted medical procedures shall be guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex for a period not less than one year and not more than five years.

Sec. 13. No hospital, clinic, institution, or any other facility in this state shall be required to admit any patient for the purpose of performing an abortion nor required to allow the performance of an abortion therein; Provided, that the hospital, clinic, institution, or any other facility shall inform the patient of its policy not to participate in abortion procedures. No cause of action shall arise against any hospital, clinic, institution, or any other facility for refusing to perform or allow an abortion.

Sec. 14. No person shall be required to perform or participate directly or indirectly in any abortion, and the refusal of any person to participate in an abortion shall not be a basis for civil liability to any person. No hospital, governing board, or any other person, firm, association, or group shall terminate the employment or alter the position of, prevent or impair the practice or occupation of, or impose any other sanction or otherwise discriminate against any person who refuses to participate in an abortion.

Sec. 15. Any firm, corporation, group, or association who violates section 14 of this act shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. Any person who shall violate section 14 of this act shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days or more than six months.

Sec. 16. Any person whose employment or position has been in any way altered, impaired, or terminated in violation of this act may sue in the district court for all consequential damages, lost wages, reasonable attorney's fees incurred, and the cost of litigation.

Sec. 17. Any person whose employment or position has in any way been altered, impaired, or terminated because of his refusal to participate in an abortion shall have the right to injunctive relief, including temporary relief, pending trial upon showing of an emergency, in the district court, in accordance with the statutes, rules, and practices applicable in other similar cases.

Sec. 18. Whoever shall use, sell, transfer, distribute, or give away any living fetus or fetuses for any form of experimentation, or for any other purpose, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person consenting, aiding, or abetting such use, sale, transfer, distribution, or other unlawful disposition of a fetus or fetuses, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 19. The Bureau of Vital Statistics, Department of Health, shall establish an abortion reporting form, which shall be used for the reporting of every abortion performed or prescribed in this state. Such form shall include the following items in addition to such other information as may be necessary to complete the form:

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Burbach reported to the members on his trip to Washington, D. C. regarding LR 31.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR

President Marsh appointed Messrs. Fowler, Mahoney and Anderson to escort the Governor to the Chamber.

The Committee escorted Governor Exon to the rostrum.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the Legislature,
Ladies and Gentlemen:

Thank you for allowing me the time to present an Interim Report on the State of the State. This message will be brief but important.

I am pleased to bring you good news this morning!

Latest revenue projections and receipts, coupled with our on-going sound fiscal management policies, can allow at least a reduction of up to 33% next year on state income taxes by reducing the rate from 15 to 10%.

Even further tax reductions could be realized if you decide not to employ $20 million of federal general revenue sharing for aid to education and real property tax relief. If this was the case and if you reject the temptation to spend such funds on other projects we could, in addition, reduce the state sales tax from 2½ to 2%. This eventually could provide, therefore, a decrease of 20% in the state sales tax in addition to the 33% reduction in the state income tax.

These tax reductions are possible and predictable only on the basis that the Legislature will not launch extensive new state obligations. We would also have to continue the policy of this administration to meet legitimate needs but refrain from trying to satisfy all by giving in to ever increasing spending demands.

While income tax refunds are running higher than normal we are experiencing substantial unanticipated increased revenues on both the state sales and income taxes.

The increased receipts are in part due to the present relative healthy state of the economy in Nebraska. I emphasize that these figures and recommendations are based upon present trends that we hope will continue. Barring any downturn in the economy or your increased spending directives, such reduced rates are attainable goals that will have to be formally and finally set by the State Board of Equalization at its meeting this November to take effect next year. They are predicated on the assumption of a good agriculture season and prices for our farmers and continued expansion of our industrial and tourism growth.

It is important that I share these facts with the Legislature and the people. Our Department of Revenue has just provided me with latest projections that indicate that the state will have a net increase from collections of $8 million more than previously estimated for the end of the current fiscal period, June 30, 1973, plus a possible additional $9 million for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1974, under present tax rates.

Due to cash flows, coupled with our established system of setting tax rates on a calendar rather than a fiscal year basis the tax decreases that I am suggesting are possible. It should be remembered that under our procedures we, in effect, set tax rates on cash flow requirements rather than strict adherence to calendar year liability.

I am sure that this information is timely, necessary and will be valuable as the Legislature now faces its important appropriation duties.

A word of caution is in order. I am hopeful that the majority of the Legislature will resist the tendency that will immediately surface by some special interest groups to view these additional tax funds as a bonanza to finance a host of projects.

While there are all kinds of spending authorizations that may be considered, I direct your attention to my budget recommendations, as amended, which I maintain meets the legitimate needs of the state, subject of course to relative minor adjustments the Legislature may care to make.

There is a very real threat to break wide open the Governor's realistic budget recommendations. Your Appropriations Committee has already increased my operations suggestions by nearly $5 million dollars and coalitions within the committee and on the floor seem to be forming to add on an additional $10 to $12 million to my capital construction requests. This total increase of $15 to $17 million does not recognize other new multi-million dollar expenditures that are presently contemplated in bills initiated by Senators and under consideration at this time.

Let me remind you that under the previous every-other-year sessions, it was customary to authorize capital construction expenditures of between approximately $20 to $30 million every two years. During 1971, we approved $6 million of contructions, in 1972 about $18 million plus a $12 million dollar field house. My recommendations to you this year were for $18 million. In addition, we have approved a $20 million state office building under special financing.

With this in mind may I suggest to your body that you now view yourselves as members of the Board of Directors of the biggest business in the state. We have, at least temporarily, the additional funds that I have outlined.

Do you now further enlarge the scope of the business and commit all or most of the increased revenues to additional spending programs? Or, on the other hand, do you conserve these funds as much as realistic and prudent and thereby allow the "stockholders", in this case the people of the state, a dividend in the form of a substantial tax reduction? It seems to me those are your choices. I recommend the latter course since the people are already carrying a heavy burden at the national, county and city levels especially on income and real estate taxes.

In addition to the increased revenues that I have announced in collections, we must consider the revenues available from general revenue sharing. Many spending eyes and ideas are eagerly viewing these federal dollars.

As Governor, I have suggested conserving most of these funds for aid to education and resulting property tax relief. The majority of your Appropriations Committee does not agree and seem destined to recommend all of these revenue sharing dollars for additional spending rather than any consideration for tax relief.

The point that I wish to make here is that the majority of General Revenue Sharing Funds, as originally intended and understood, should be employed to reduce taxes either through aid to education and accompanying real estate relief or by some other means. In my opinion, to do otherwise would be breaking faith. Contrary to some statements, revenue sharing is not "free money" but funds we must conserve and use wisely. They are tax funds like any other revenue of government.

Finally there have been concerns, some of which are legitimate, due to confusion in Washington which may reduce the flow of funds into some worthwhile programs. We have no reason to believe that all of this will be resolved before the first of July. As I warned in my January address, the state capitol doors have been spinning merrily by groups seeking state funding to make up for a potential loss in federal dollars.

At this time no one knows for certain if any federal funds will definitely be eliminated. Within the last week one Federal Court has ruled that the President may not impound funds while another has ruled that the President cannot dismantle programs established by the Congress.

I want to mention, in this regard, that this Governor has not and does not intend to impound duly authorized expenditures by the Legislature although I may heartily disagree with your actions. The separation of powers are more important than who happens to be the Governor or serves in the Legislature at a given time.

In closing, let me advise that if and when significant federal funds are actually lost on important people oriented programs, there will be sufficient time to call a Special Session, if absolutely necessary, and request legislative appropriations to cover any especially vital areas that might be impaired by Washington decisions. The cost of a Special Session would be far less than the funds which you may now prematurely authorize which might be unnecessarily spent in the event federal funds were not withheld.

I am sure that the information that I have provided this morning will be helpful to the Legislature. With you lies the sole responsibility for appropriations which actually set tax rates. It is my hope that you will respond favorably to my recommendations which, coupled with the very latest figures on revenues, will not only prevent a tax increase but allow reductions.

Thank you for your time and attention.

The Committee escorted the Governor from the Chamber.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Chambers asked unanimous consent to print the following letter in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

League of Women Voters of Nebraska

The Honorable Ernest Chambers
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator Chambers:

On behalf of the League of Women Voters of Nebraska, I would like to protest the conduct of the public hearing on the election bills, LB 554-562, held Thursday, April 12. The League believes the public hearing is an integral part of the legislative process in a democracy. Public hearings should include testimony from both supporting citizens attending the hearing on the bills as well as those in opposition. It can not be assumed that the committee members are in favor of the bills; therefore, those arguments supporting the bills should be heard. Also, there may have been questions about certain sections of the bill which needed to raised and the opportunity should be given to citizens to raise those questions.

We are aware of the need to expedite these bills because they were introduced so late by the Secretary of State's office. (We have already registered a protest with Mr. Beerman about his timing.) However, we feel that the public is better served by a complete hearing on all bills.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Mrs. Mary Zilly
State President

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Unbracket LB 496

Mr. Schmit asked unanimous consent to unbracket LB 496 on Select File. No objections. So ordered.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 43
April 16, 1973

Senator Frank Lewis
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Lewis:

You have submitted to us a proposed amendment to the Standing Committee amendments to L. B. 445. Your amendment would amend Section 79-1522, R. R. S. 1943, to provide in part:

> "Each school employee or emeritus member who retired before July 1, 1973 and who is receiving a service annuity as of that date shall have such service annuity adjusted by the increase in the cost of living as determined by the difference between the Consumers Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers from the date the service annuity commenced and July 1, 1973, except that such annuity shall not exceed three dollars monthly annuity per year of service, based on the same number of years of service that is currently being used to determine his service annuity. Such increased service annuity shall commence on July 1, 1973."

In an opinion of this office dated April 12, 1973, addressed to Senator Whitney, we discussed the amendment of Article III, Section 19 of the Nebraska Constitution, pointing out that this constitutional provision authorized increases in retirement benefits of retired public employees only when it was tied to changes in the cost of living or wage levels since the retirement of the employees. It appears to us that the amendment you have submitted to us complies with this requirement, and we see no constitutional difficulties with the proposed amendment.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 42A
April 16, 1973

Senator Wally Barnett, Jr.
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Barnett:

You have requested that we amplify our opinion to you dated April 12, 1973, with respect to the first question dealth with therein.

It follows from the conclusions which we expressed in our April 12 opinion that the fire marshal would have no authority to promulgate rules and regulations concerning nursing homes, homes for the aged and infirm and jails, insomuch as those types of structures are not specifically enumerated in Section 81-502.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

> May they realize that they are, even in the midst of personal frustration and partisan attach, among the most respected of Nebraska citizens.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 17, 1973

The Honorable Richard Proud
Speaker of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. Speaker:

From reports that I have had since my message to the Legislature on Monday, it appears that the majority of your body has read into that message some misconceptions.

In the first place, there was no hint or suggestion when I appeared before the Legislature yesterday that you should abandon all legislation pending before your body, close up shop, and go home.

While the responsibility as to when to adjourn is entirely a legislative matter, I suggest caution and careful consideration of some of your obvious hasty decisions of yesterday and this morning.

I wish to thank the body for your dispatch in moving my general operating budget and your expressions of support for my suggested tax reductions.

Evidently the body is under the misconception, however, that you are accomplishing precisely what I requested. This is certainly not the case. While there have been numerous comments on the floor regarding our budget being adequate, you have not adopted that budget.

In my message, I requested the following which you have failed to consider:

> (1) You have failed to act on our $18 million capital construction request which is a part of my budget.
> (2) You have failed to act to make revenue sharing funds available to finance portions of that budget or for state aid as I had suggested, and have, in effect, "impounded" these funds. As specifically referred to in my Monday message, the sales tax cannot be reduced unless you release such funds. We shall present you immediately with a bill to allow such appropriation to reduce the sales tax.

I have been amazed at some of the misconceptions that have surfaced. Responsible government and actions seem to have given way to emotions. There are several matters worthy of your attention before you adjourn, but I emphasize again this is your decision. If you hastily adjourn there are undoubtedly other important required actions that will arise that have been overlooked.

As an example, you have to date failed to reappropriate capital construction funds to continue capital construction previously authorized and now under construction. It would be the height of irresponsibility to place such projects in jeopardy, and we will rush a bill to you to correct this oversight.

I willingly accept the responsibility to "live" with my budget that seems to be a popular topic in the Legislature. But I caution you that such a philosophy is only possible if you approve the "total" budget and not a piecemeal version thereof.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

SEVENTIETH DAY—APRIL 18, 1973

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

SEVENTIETH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Wednesday, April 18, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:02 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> O Lord our God: By now it seems so very familiar to us all–the dash back to the Statehouse for the tasks of another day; the rap of the Speaker's gavel; the prayer of the Chaplain; the pile of unopened letters on our desks from those who see so clearly what we should be doing here; the guests in the gallery who are trying to see what we are doing here; the reporters who will tell the folks back home what they believe we have been doing here; and beyond all these, the things which we have convinced ourselves that we are in fact doing here; by now it seems so very familiar to us all–we've been down this road so many times before.
> But the more familiar the way, the more treacherous the detours. Keep us on course, we pray!
> Save us from the sin of over–familiarity with public trust.
> May our accomplishment for Nebraska be so significant that even we, when we describe it, may not be guilty of bragging—not when we accept our checks, guilty of sponging. Amen.

ROLL CALL

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Cavanaugh and F. Lewis who were excused; Mr. Stahmer who was absent until 9:45 a.m.

WHEREAS, national land-use legislation has been considered by the United States Congress for three consecutive years; and

WHEREAS, such legislation does require states to exercise states rights and state responsibility over those land-use planning and policy decisions which are of local concern; and

WHEREAS, although such legislation does require that state governments develop a process of planning, it does endorse the concept that local land-use decisions should be made by local governments and does provide the states with wide latitude in determining methods of implementation.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

That, the Agriculture and Environment Committee of the Eighty-Third Legislature, First Session, 1973, of the State of Nebraska is hereby directed to:

3. Report to the Second Session of the Eighty-Third Legislature the result of its findings and make such recommendations as it deems appropriate.

Referred to the Executive Board.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

WHEREAS, there may be inequalities in the marriage and divorce laws of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, some parents leave their children and do not furnish support of their children.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE, FIRST SESSION:

That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council appoint a committee to study the marriage and divorce laws of this state relating to any inequalities in such laws of this state and especially where parents leave their children and make no provisions for the support of their children, and to report its findings and recommendations to the Eighty-third Legislature, Second Session, 1974.

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 46.

Introduced by the Revenue Committee, Burbach, Chairman, 19th District.

WHEREAS, each regular session of the Legislature is faced with numerous bills dealing with virtually every aspect of revenue and taxation; and

WHEREAS, such bills frequently require more study than can be given during a session as evidenced by the fact that several such bills were killed in committee during the present session with the understanding that they would be made the subject of interim studies; and

WHEREAS, unanticipated problems often arise in the field of taxation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Committee on Revenue be directed to study those problems presented by bills killed with the understanding that they would be made the subject of interim studies and such other problems respecting revenue and taxation which may arise and report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 47.

Introduced by the Committee on Agriculture and Environment, Schmit, 23rd District, Chairman.

WHEREAS, extensive amendments by Congress with the passage of HR 10729 (The Federal Environmental Pesticide Control Act) which substantially amends the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, have put most states, including Nebraska, in a position of having to adopt additional legislation relating to the certification of applicators, registration of pesticides and the appointment of a single agency to administer a state program; and

WHEREAS, under the federal act, the states are left with some discretion to choose the extent of their involvement, leaving Nebraska the opportunity to regulate pesticides in a comprehensive manner or to relegate as much responsibility to the federal government Environmental Protection Agency as may be possible; and

WHEREAS, the extent to which the Environmental Protection Agency wishes to allow that kind of relegation depends upon policy decisions which have not yet been made, preventing the preparation of a legislative bill for introduction at this time; and

WHEREAS, Nebraska, being an agricultural state, will be vitally interested and perhaps economically effected by the federal administration of all pesticide application and registration for use of pesticides.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a legislative study committee be appointed by the Executive Board of the Legislative Council to study and report to the next session of the Legislature on the problems posed by use of modern pesticides, the impact on Nebraska by the passage of HR 10729, and recommend what legislation, if any, shall be proposed to serve the best interest of the State of Nebraska.

Referred to the Executive Board.

WHEREAS, the provision of adequate health care for all the citizens of Nebraska is a continuing and growing concern to the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the Nebraska Legislature has indicated concern over the escalating health care costs in the State of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, serious health care problems exist throughout the state, in urban as well as rural areas, resulting in large part from a shortage of fully trained and qualified health care personnel; and

WHEREAS, only selected providers of health care are licensed; and

WHEREAS, the allied health care professions are not yet being used to any marked extent in Nebraska but might be of major assistance in the provision of improved health care; and

WHEREAS, legislation on such a vital and broad area as health care services in the State of Nebraska requires intensive and thorough study in order to insure that any legislation proposed is not detrimental to the best interests of the citizens of the State of Nebraska.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Public Health and Welfare Committee be assigned the task of studying:
    a. All aspects of the utilization of allied health care professions including licensure and performance of duties;
    b. The introduction of Health Maintenance Organizations to the Nebraska health delivery system including advantages, disadvantages, licensure requirements, and any related information with respect to providing quality health care at a reasonable level of cost;
    c. Welfare costs and the specific impact of welfare reform (HR 1) on the services and health care provided to the aged citizens of Nebraska;
    d. Hospital costs and related medical costs which prevail in Nebraska and the impact of voluntary price control.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 49.

Introduced by Barnett, 26th District.

WHEREAS, Lancaster County is desirous of acquiring the land upon which the former Nebraska Orthopedic Hospital was located for the erection of a Dentention Center; and

WHEREAS, such land is now surplus to the needs of the state; and

WHEREAS, the proposed use of such land would be very beneficial; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nebraska has offered to sell and Lancaster County agrees to buy the real estate described as: Beginning at the southwest corner of Lot 10, Block 1, South Park Addition, in the city of Lincoln, thence northerly, along the east line of 10th Street a distance of 118.90 feet; thence easterly, on a deflection angle of ninety degrees six minutes right, a distance of 247.48 feet; thence northerly, on a deflection angle of eighty-nine degrees one minute left, a distance of 168.35 feet; thence easterly, on a deflection angle of eighty-nine degrees eighteen minutes right, a distance of 103.7 feet, to a point on the west line of 11th Street; thence southerly, along the west line of 11th Street, on a deflection angle of eighty-nine degrees forty-one minutes right, a distance of 317.59 feet; thence westerly, on a deflection angle of eighty-nine degrees fifty-seven minutes right, a distance of 195.0 feet; thence northerly, on a deflection angle of eighty-eight degrees twelve minutes right, a distance of 31.20 feet; thence westerly, on a deflection angle of eighty-eight degrees nine minutes left, a distance of 158.0 feet, to the point of beginning, containing 65,847.8 square feet, more or less.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 50.

Introduced by Schmit, 23rd District; Waldron, 42nd District; Snyder, 14th District.

WHEREAS, Nebraska is an agricultural state and its economy is intricately interwoven with a healthy financial climate for agriculture; and

WHEREAS, the average of Nebraska farmers is over 59 years of age; and

WHEREAS, the increased cost of the investment necessary to become established in agriculture has frequently not yielded a satisfactory return on capital; and

WHEREAS, this has resulted in a serious shortage of capital available to young farmers; and

WHEREAS, this could produce a serious crisis in the area of production of food and fiber.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Committee on Agriculture and Environment undertake a study to determine the reasons for the lack of interest in farming by young people and to make a report to the next session of the Legislature with its recommendations.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 51.

Introduced by DeCamp, 40th District.

WHEREAS, the regulation of lotteries, wagering, and gambling are issues confronting many legislatures; and

WHEREAS, there is now pending before this Legislature proposed legislation dealing with such areas; and

WHEREAS, the trends, customs, and mores of the country have changed requiring more information than is now available to the Nebraska Legislature; and

WHEREAS, legislation on such a controversial subject requires intensive and thorough study in order to insure that any legislation proposed is not detrimental to the best interests of the State of Nebraska.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 44
April 19, 1973

Senator Richard Maresh
Nebraska State Legislature
State House
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Senator:

You ask if L.B. 449 is constitutional. That bill requires that all political subdivisions, as defined in Sec. 23-2102, R. R. S. 1943, fluoridate their water supply for human consumption.

It is our opinion that the bill is constitutional.

No cases were found from any jurisdiction that struck down similar measures. The most recent case found was Alkire v. Cashman, 350 F. Supp. 360 (1972). The Federal District Court in Ohio in that case upheld a statute that made fluoridation mandatory for certain public water works. Plaintiffs alleged, among other things, that the statute violated their rights of privacy, and due process and equal protection which are guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

This is what the Court said:

> "If we assume that the ordinances were adopted pursuant to the general police powers of cities incorporated under the laws of Ohio, and in conformity with rules governing their respective political processes, then it is settled in this state that the fluoridation of a municipal water supply is a proper exercise of municipal police powers which does not violate either federal or state constitutional rights. See Kraus v. City of Cleveland, 163 Ohio St. 559, 127 N. E. 2d 609, 57 Ohio O. 1 (1955), appeal dismissed for want of substantial federal question, 351 U. S. 935, 76 S. Ct. 833, 100 L. Ed. 1463 (1956).
> "If, on the other hand, we were to accept plaintiffs' theory of the case, we are still of the opinion that the petition fails to raise a justiciable issue. Courts, both state and federal, have held with virtual unanimity that the fluoridation of public water systems does not violate the due process clause or constitutional rights incorporated by that clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. See Kraus v. City of Cleveland, supra, appeal dismissed for want of a substantial federal question, 351 U.,S. 935, 76 S. Ct. 833, 100 L. Ed. 1463 (1956); Crawford v. City of Detriot, 389 F. 2d 1001 (C.A. 6, 1968); Chapman v. City of Shreveport, 225 La. 859, 74 So. 2d 142 (1956), appeal dismissed for want of a substantial federal question, 348 U. S. 892, 75 S. Ct. 216, 99 L. Ed. 701 (1954); Readey v. St. Louis County Water Co., 352 S.W. 2d 622 (Mo. 1961), appeal dismissed and cert denied, 371 U.S. 8, 83 S.Ct. 20, 9 L.Ed. 273 P. 2d 859 (Okl. 1954), cert. denied, 348 U. S. 912, 75 S. Ct. 292, 99 L. Ed. 715 (1955); also see, Opinion of Justices, 243 A. 2d. 716 (Del 1968); Schuringa v. Chicago, 30 Ill 2d 504, 198 N. E. 2d 326 (1966); Miller v. Evansville, 247 Ind. 563, 219 N. E. 2d 900 (1966); Baer V. Bend, 206 Or. 221, 292 P. 2d 134 (1956); Birnel v. Fircrest, 53 Wash. 2d 830, 335 P. 2d 819 (1959). * *."

There is annotation on this particular subject in 43 A. L. R. 2d 453.

You also ask if L.B. 449 could be enforced without a penalty provision. The answer is yes. A mandatory injunction action could be filed and if granted then the political subdivision would be required to perform its pre-existing statutory duty to fluoridate the water supply. Also, a writ of mandamus would probably apply. Section 25-2156 R. R. S. 1943, provides that such a writ may be issued to compel performance of an act which the law requires.

In conclusion it is our opinion that L.B. 449 is constitutional and, if passed, it could be enforced.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the Nebraska Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I return herewith LB 179 without my signature and with my objections.

First, it should be recognized that the Legislature in passing this bill provided no funds whatsoever for even routine maintenance and related expenses at the proposed new University facility at Scottsbluff. This is hardly a realistic or prudent action in itself. It is difficult to see how the University could immediately accept any physical plant without at least funds for insurance, surveillance, and upkeep.

After thoughtful consideration of all of the implications embodied in LB 179, it is my position that the contemplated acquisition of all or parts of the former Hiram Scott College facilities by the University requires further planning, study and consideration before possible final approval of the Legislature. Herewith I am detailing some of the problems that deserve attention and suggest consideration by all before we proceed.

From the beginning of the development of this proposal, I have cautioned that approval should be based primarily on the University coming forward with a plan that would prove the need of such expansion and outline curriculum that would not merely be a duplication of existing educational opportunities. This has not been done. Generalities have been expounded but hard facts in this area are non-existant. The sound business-like approach has been abandoned for expediency. Certainly the University's five-year plan must be re-evaluated before we proceed since the Scottsbluff addition was not envisioned therein.

I support the serious consideration for the Scottsbluff proposal based on where and if it fits into our overall future educational needs.

Here is an example of how we are lacking in some form of overall coordinating body for post secondary education in Nebraska. Nebraska remains one of only three states without any such guidelines. At a time when we are just launching an expansive two year college system, it appears that we may be attempting to move without due consideration.

The proposed addition at Hiram Scott will have to be considered with and compete for educational funding with not only the rest of the University system but the state's other institutions of higher learning.

I urge consideration of the following concerns and facts that we all must view as we plan for the future.

First, I direct the attention of all to the recently released detailed report and projections by the Nebraska Higher Education Facilities Commission. Please note that the birth rate in Nebraska has plunged from approximately 34,000 per year in 1961 to 23,000 in 1972 and a further downward trend is predicted. This drop in the birth rate has already begun to have a significant effect on our elementary enrollments.

The report further indicates a peaking of graduating high school seniors in 1978 and a heavy drop in such graduates immediately thereafter.

Second, while the University system enrollment seems to have stabilized after years of rapid growth, we are currently experiencing a significant decline in enrollment at our state colleges, and in some of Nebraska's non-public colleges. Dormitory bond financing at some institutions is in potential future difficulty.

With this picture, as much as all of us appreciative of the wonderful opportunities, generosity and efforts of those sincerely interested in the Scottsbluff addition, we must chart our course carefully.

When we plan for the future, we must recognize that western Nebraska with its excellent environment and recreational facilities is most attractive and with the pioneer spirit of its residents holds great promise for unlimited development potential. We should consider these obvious facts and incorporate them into our deliberations.

Yet, let us recognize that the offer of some free land and buildings which have recently been professionally appraised at less than $1 million at Hiram Scott is not the critical test as to whether or not the University should expand westward. As appreciative as the State and the University are for such an attractive proposal, we should realize that such an offer does not, in and of itself, justify the proposition.

If and when the University accepts such a gift, it should be forthrightly recognized that staff, administration, and related expenses are the major multi-million dollar expenditures that would be faced in the future.

May I suggest that the cart may have been placed in front of the horse to date on some considerations on this matter.

It should be understood by all, without equivocation, that no dormitories or food service facilities whatsoever are incorporated in the suggested donation.

Before we proceed, I suggest that:

1. A detailed and realistic workable plan should be developed.
2. The considerations should include how many students, from where, and taking what specified and limited courses as LB 179 contemplates.
3. The possible availability of gainful and constructive employment in Nebraska of such trained students.
4. What specific agricultural programs will be researched and taught.
5. What will the realistic costs be projected at least five years into the future.

Contrary to assumptions to date, the possible acquisition of the dormitory and food service facilities currently obligated to bond holders by more than $4 million should be resolved before any final determination on the Hiram Scott proposal. It has been assumed these key facilities can be obtained "later" at a fraction of their present indebtedness.

The future financing of higher education in the state should not and must not be interlaced with the enhancement of the equity of private bondholders on the now defunct former private institution. From the information made available to me, it would appear obvious that if the University detailed studies prove the plan feasible on a long-range basis, the dormitory and food service buildings issue should be first resolved.

In this message I have attempted to put the matter into perspective so that all can proceed with objectivity as to what the proper course should be.

Very truly yours,

Introduced by Fellman, 4th District.

WHEREAS, the Federal government is now allocating to the State of Nebraska and its political subdivisions general revenue sharing funds in accordance with the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972, and

WHEREAS, the Federal government is considering proposals for special revenue sharing in major areas of governmental responsibility, and

WHEREAS, the allocation of general and special revenue sharing funds will require new forms of cooperation between the State of Nebraska, its political subdivisions and the Federal government, and

WHEREAS, the broader discretion in suballocating Federal funds under general and special revenue sharing requires expanded and more effective governmental capabilities in the State of Nebraska and its political subdivisions, and

WHEREAS, the expansion of Federal general and special revenue sharing programs and the termination of Federal categorical grant in aid programs and State programs predicated upon them will occur over a period of years during which the State and local subdivisions will operate in overlapping program systems.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1) That the Legislature of the State of Nebraska establish an interim study committee to study the State's decision making capabilities to respond to the requirements and potentialities of Federal revenue sharing, which study would have as its purposes:

> a. To identify the requirements for planning, programming, budgeting and information dissemination processes which aid in establishing public priorities and orderly schedules for achieving public programs.
> b. To determine the adequacy of the State government organization and staffing for operation under Federal general and special revenue sharing programs.
> c. To identify opportunities for the State government to assist its political subdivisions to improve organizational and managerial capabilities to participate in revenue sharing programs.
> d. To identify improvements in the operation of the legislature and its committees in relation to revenue sharing, particularly the arrangements for levying taxes, estimating revenues and handling the Executive budget.
> e. To forecast requirements under general and special revenue sharing programs for cooperation with adjoining states in the Great Plains area and participation in multi-state operations.
> f. To evaluate the statutes of Nebraska with a view to facilitating the blending of Federal general and special revenue sharing funds with the revenues of the State of Nebraska.

2) That the help of the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, the Budget Committee of the Legislature, the Legislative Council Budget Committee and the Department of Administrative Services be solicited and, with their consent, utilized by the committee as it should deem appropriate.

3) That the committee make its report to the next session of the legislature with its recommendations.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 55.

Introduced by Keyes, 3rd District.

WHEREAS, there are some indications that railroad companies in the State of Nebraska presently own and operate branch rail lines in this state which handle insufficient traffic to pay the costs of maintenance and operation of such lines; and

WHEREAS, the failure of such branch lines to generate sufficient traffic to pay their costs of maintenance and operation raises the strong probability of their immediate or eventual abandonment; and

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest to anticipate such abandonments and the State should study and explore the economic feasibility of acquiring, for highway or other purposes, the rights-of-way underlying such branch lines.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

That an interim study be undertaken by an appropriate committee of the Legislature to determine (1) which branch lines of railroads operating in this State have insufficient traffic to pay the costs of their maintenance and operation, and (2) the desirability and feasibility of the State's acquiring the railroad rights-of-way underlying such lines in the event they are abandoned for possible use by the State for road and highway location and for other purposes.

Referred to the Executive Board.

MOTION—Suspend Rules

Mr. Chambers moved to suspend the Rules and introduce a new bill.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 30, 1973

Having observed the actions of the Legislature in some detail and having reconsidered several of my previous thoughts I am now of the firm opinion that your body is acting in the best interests of the people.

I commend each and every one of you for your devotion to duty and for your tireless efforts on behalf of the taxpayer.

At the same time I would be remiss in my duty if I did not remind you and impress upon you the fact you are making the manificent salary of $400.00 per month or that is to say $4800.00 per annum. This does seem a bit high. Now, I realize that the governor's salary is more than five times this amount but, after all the governor does work hard and is very busy cutting red tape and ribbons.

Therefore, it is my best judgment that a bill be introduced reducing your salary by one-half and increasing the governor's salary by one-half.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Richard F. Proud
Acting Governor

The Chambers motion to suspend the Rules and introduce a new bill lost with 12 ayes, 30 nays and 7 not voting.

Tuesday, May 1, 1973

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by Reverend Everett Franklin Hezmall, Associate Pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church, Lincoln.

> As You have great faith in us, O God, so we thank You for the daily trust which our fellow citizens have imposed in us. Strengthen us where we are weak; Give us insight and perception for the right solution to the problems confronting us.
> When we are brought to the test, steady our nerve and hold us in our faith; that in this day of unrest and uncertainty for our people we shall build confidence.

> Grant our Father, that the legislation we enact will contribute to the welfare of the whole Community and to the making of a better world. In the Spirit of Christ we pray. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 57.

Introduced by Kelly, 35th District.

WHEREAS, a general problem exists in getting certain persons to make child support payments as required of them by divorce or dissolution of marriage decrees; and

WHEREAS, in some counties a sizeable volume of delinquent child support payments has accumulated; and

WHEREAS, the refusal to make such payments may have an impact on the number of persons receiving benefits under the program of Aid to Families with Dependent Children; and

WHEREAS, there are provisions in the law for prosecuting persons who willfully refuse to make such payments, but which are somewhat cumbersome and time-consuming, especially if the delinquent parent is located in a county other than the one in which the family resides; and

WHEREAS, it would be beneficial to determine if there would be other procedures available to make it easier and less time-consuming to enforce the decrees requiring child support payments.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That an interim study be conducted as directed by the Executive Board of the Legislative Council of the problem of delinquent child support payments, which study shall include a survey of (a) the scope of the problem; (b) the present methods available for enforcing court orders requiring such payments; and (c) possible alternative methods and procedures which would aid in such enforcement.

2. That upon the completion of the study the committee report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 58.

Introduced by Marvel, 33rd District; Clark, 47th District.

WHEREAS, Nebraska is a large state having an unequal distribution of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that state government and its political subdivisions provide selective services throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, numerous agencies are involved in providing related, complementary, or the same services; and

WHEREAS, identification and coordination of these services could provide a comprehensive delivery system for any citizen who would require or benefit from such services; and

WHEREAS, some Nebraska citizens are unable to benefit from available services because of restrictions, rules and regulations, and the complexity of bureaucracy.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations Committee make a study that would:
    (a) Compile an inventory of people-related services currently being provided;
    (b) Identify cost and resources used to provide these services;
    (c) Make a determination of the methods used to deliver the services;
    (d) Develop methods by which the state can determine the number of citizens who need such services;
    (e) Identify alternatives for redistribution of resources for more effective utilization;
    (f) Determine the feasibility of decentralizing services on a uniform regional basis; and
    (g) Improve the methods of measuring the accomplishments of the agencies and services provided.

2. That the committee shall make a report of its findings and make its recommendations to the next session of the Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 59.

Introduced by Marvel, 33rd District; Stahmer, 8th District; Stromer, 36th District; Simpson, 46th District.

WHEREAS, the Governing Boards of the State Colleges and the Technical Community Colleges disagree on their respective instructional roles; and

WHEREAS, the State Colleges are experiencing an enrollment decrease, while the Technical Community Colleges are experiencing an enrollment increase; and

WHEREAS, the demand upon the State's tax dollars to support higher education continues to increase; and

WHEREAS, the maximum use of the facilities and resources in the colleges and the universities in Nebraska is a desirable goal; and

WHEREAS, the concept of regionalization of educational service areas may have a beneficial effect by reducing administrative costs, eliminating duplication of effort, maximizing facility utilization and providing higher educational opportunities for the citizens of the State of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nebraska does not have a legislative or executive policy on state-wide opportunities for higher education.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

(1) That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council appoint a committee to conduct a study on (1) duplication of instructional effort between the Technical Community College system and the State Colleges; (2) the concept of regionalization of instructional service areas in higher education.

(2) That this committee make its report together with any recommendations to the Legislature at the conclusion of its study.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

SEVENTY-FIFTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, May 3, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Proud presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by Reverend Everett Franklin Hezmall, Associate Pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church, Lincoln.

> Eternal God, without whom life has no spiritual source, no ultimate meaning or destiny; but with whom there is renewal of purpose and hope for the future, we turn now unto You.
> Refresh our faith that the strain of life may not break our spirits. We confess our temptation to measure our lives by the standards of the crowd; Grant us such clarity of wisdom, independence of mind and courage of will that we may live according to our best conscience—without fear or favor of the multitude.
> Mindful, O God, our Father, that nations have risen and fallen away; save us from the decline of pure religion, from failure of moral fiber in our citzenship, from the vulgarity of life, the loss of social conscience, and the collapse of national character.
> Let our public life be the expression of our personal integrity. Father, uphold us with your divine Spirit, that in freedom and love we shall serve our fellowmen.
> In the Spirit of Christ we pray, Amen.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 3, 1973

The Honorable Richard F. Proud, Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. Speaker and Senators:

I am herewith transmitting three bills which require attention by your body.

The first of these is a bill to amend LB 259. The amendments are all within the total general fund amount of my budget as proposed. Included in this bill are amendments that I have previously submitted along with realignments I suggest since the budget was finalized.

The second bill is one allowing fees and cash fund options to the Health Department. This was a part of my budget recommendation, but this bill is necessary to allow the collections. If the bill is not passed, the Department would need an additional general fund appropriation of $334,000.

The third bill is the last supplemental appropriations bill for the 1972-73 fiscal year. In previous sessions, this annual appropriation has been introduced by the Appropriations Committee, but we have seen no indication of such consideration this year. In my budget recommendations of January 19, 1973, I allowed for $4.3 million for such supplemental appropriations, but finalized figures reduced this to less than $3.6 million as transmitted herewith. Approximately one-half of the general fund impact of this bill is due to the inadequate "A" bill funding for last year's court reform bill.

There is also still before your body a supplemental bill previously submitted, LB 505, for secondary sewage treatment funds for 1972-73. You also still have before you LB 542 introduced by your Labor Committee for funds for legitimate claims made against the state and approved by the Claims Board and your Committee.

All of the above items are part of my budget recommendations and were taken into consideration when I advised you of increased revenues and my outlines for possible income tax reductions. Any possible reduction in the sales tax, as I have outlined previously, is dependent on the use of revenue sharing funds.

I ask that the three bills be introduced by you as Speaker at my request.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

The Speaker asked the Assistant Clerk to take the bills to the Attorney General to see if the Constitution requires the Speaker to sign and introduce the bills.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I return herewith LB 452 without my signature and with my objections.

No long, detailed message in this regard is necessary.

You are all familiar with my firm belief that this measure is a serious attempt at legislative invasion of the executive and erosion of the traditional separation of powers. It seeks to impair if not emasculate the ability and effectiveness of the Governor to exercise his constitutional duties as Chief Executive in administering and controlling state government and the monitoring of expenditures as appropriated by your honorable body.

I find no general support for the measure, and it has been publicly opposed by the three Governors who have worked with the Department of Administrative Services under their administrations.

I will sincerely appreciate your sustaining my veto of this far-reaching and ill-founded bill.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

(Signed) Richard Marvel, Chairman

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

May 4, 1973

Hon. Roland A. Luedtke, Chairman
Judiciary Committee
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Luedtke:

Some of the language selected for the Committee statement on L. B. 524 could leave the impression that I appeared on the bill and favor all of its provisions. I was at the Committee hearing on another matter and I do favor an increase in the size of the Board of Parole for the reason that one full time member and two part time members cannot possibly accomplish in a proper fashion all of the duties imposed upon them by law.

In connection with increasing the size of the Board, I did suggest that it would avoid future confusion if the terms of the newly appointed members commenced and ended on the same date as that of the present members. The terms of present members date from September 9 of the year in which they were first appointed, so some degree of consistency could be achieved if in line 19 of Sec. 2 of the amendments which would change Sec. 83-189, were changed by striking the period after the word "act" and substituting a comma, and then adding the following new language: "but the terms of such new members shall be deemed to commence on September 9, 1973."

The Attorney General could not be in favor of Sec. 1 of the amendments which would amend Sec. 83-184 to remove the requirement that the Board of Parole must approve the release of prisoners for furloughs and work release. Such an amendment would be in direct conflict with Sec. 13 of Article IV of our Constitution. Only the Board of Parole or the Board of Pardons can authorize a confined prisoner to leave the Institution during his term. I would also oppose such a change as a citizen, because we have had Wardens in the distant past, and we could again have in the future, who should not have the unsupervised authority to release prisoners for unlimited periods of time.

I also at that time questioned the advisability of the amendment proposed for Sec. 83-1,120 (Sec. 7, page 8 of the proposed amendments). The remainder of this letter is taken from a memorandum prepared for me by Assistant Attorney General Mel Kammerlohr, in which he very adequately outlines why such an amendment is questionable:

"Page 8 of the proposed amendments to the above bill amends 83-1,120 to provide a procedure for a parole revocation hearing. The procedure proposed in this amendment would require that the parolee be permitted, among other things, to be represented by counsel, and to cross-examine adverse witnesses.

"This proposed amendment goes much further than the Supreme Court of the United States required in the recent case of Morrissey v. Brewer, 33 L. Ed. 2d 484 (June 29, 1973).

"In the first place, a hearing was only required by that case after the independent parole officer had made an investigation and recommended a parole revocation. Your committee's amendment would require a hearing whenever the parolee was charged with a violation whether or not revocation or some lesser action was recommended.

"As to the actual conduct of the hearing when a final decision was to be made upon the revocation by the parole authority, the Supreme Court set forth the following minimum requirements:

> " '* * *. They include (a) written notice of the claimed violations of parole; (b) disclosure to the parolee of evidence against him; (c) opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and documentary evidence; (d) the right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses (unless the hearing officer specifically finds good cause for not allowing confrontation); (e) a "neutral and detached" hearing body such as a traditional parole board, members of which need not be judicial officers or lawyers; and (f) a written statement by the factfinders as to the evidence relied on and reasons for revoking parole. * * *.'

"You will note that the United States Supreme Court specifically exempted cross-examination when the hearing officer found good cause for doing so which, from the Court's discussion, would apply 'if the hearing officer determines that the informant would be subjected to risk or harm if his identity were disclosed, he need not be subjected to confrontation and cross-examination.'

"Nowhere did the Court require that the parolee be entitled to counsel but specifically stated, 'We do not reach or decide the question whether the parolee is entitled to the assistance of retained counsel or to appointed counsel if he is indigent.'

"Of course, the inclusion in your committee's draft that he be 'permitted' to be represented by counsel immediately raises some questions: (1) Does this refer to only retained counsel and, if so, is this denying the indigent equal protection of the law as required by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution? (2) If indigents are also to be provided counsel, who is responsible for appointment, payment, and how much will it cost?"

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Clarence A. H. Meyer

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Monday, May 7, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 10:00 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> O Lord, let us never be afraid of a new idea or unreceptive to a new thought, lest we pull down the shades of our minds and exclude Thy holy light. When confronted by mystery, help us to remember that we do not have to explain all we know or understand all we believe. But give us the grace of humility and the spirit of the open mind, the courage to persist in face of difficulities, and a steady confidence in the power of truth.
> Help us all to learn something this day, that we shall be wise at its close and more ready for our eternal home when we are one step nearer. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRESIDENT SIGNS

While the Legislature was in session and capable of transacting business, the President signed the following: LR 21.

Constitutional Revision and Recreation

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 32. Indefinitely postponed.
Committee Statement to LR 32:

The committee Indefinitely Postponed the bill mainly because it was thought it wasn't needed to this great of an extent at this time, plus the fact that fifty million dollars was a lot of money. The committee felt that this was another avenue the credit of the state would be pledged. Also, it was thought that the general public has not been asking for this, therefore, there was no great need to submit this to the people at this time.

Senator Terry Carpenter, the introducer, was the only person appearing in favor of this Resolution.

There was no opposition to the Resolution.

A motion was made and seconded to Indefinitely Postpone LR 32. Motion carried: 4 Ayes, 2 Nays and 1 Absent. Voting Aye were Senators Syas, Burbach, Carstens and Snyder. Voting Nay were Senators Anderson and Keyes. Senator Kelly was absent.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 33. Indefinitely postponed.
Committee Statement to LR 33:

LR 33 originally would have prevented the state legislature or anybody running for state office to be sixty-five at the date that term would commence. The committee amended this bill, striking sixty-five and making it seventy-two. After discussing this bill further, the committee came to the conclusion that when people run for election the general public should have the right to elect a person as young or as old as they wish to. The same reasoning would not apply to an appointed situation where the general public would not have the opportunity to decide. Another factor in indefinitely postpoining LR 33 was that you should not go this route until the salary in the legislature is increased to a point where younger people could financially be able to be senators. There is a great possibility that an age restriction could be done sometime in the future after some other things are taken care of.

Senator Terry Carpenter, the introducer, was the only person appearing in favor of this Resolution.

There was no opposition to LR 33.

A motion was made to amend the age requirement to read seventy-two. Motion was seconded. Motion passed: 3 Ayes, 1 Nay, 0 Not Voting and 3 Absent. Voting Aye were Senators Syas, Kelly and Keyes. Voting Nay was Senator Anderson. Senators Burbach, Carstens and Snyder were absent.

A motion was made and seconded to Indefinitely Postpone LR 33. Motion passed: 6 Ayes, 0 Nays, 0 Not Voting and 1 Absent. Voting Aye were Senators Syas, Anderson, Burbach, Carstens, Keyes and Snyder. Senator Kelly was absent.

LEGISLATIVE BILL 564. Indefinitely postponed.

LEGISLATIVE BILL 576. Indefinitely postponed.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 47
May 7, 1973

Senator John W. DeCamp
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

You ask if an abortion law such as that recently enacted by the State of Rhode Island would be constitutional. The new Rhode Island law is almost identical to the Nebraska statutes, Sections 28-404 and 28-405, R. R. S. 1943, that were struck down by the United States District Court for the District of Nebraska in the not too distant past. That is, an abortion can not be performed unless necessary to preserve the life of the mother. However, the Rhode Island Legislature added a new feature in that its new law provides, in part:

> ". . . . that human life commences at the instant of conception and that said human life at said instant of conception is a person within the language and meaning of the fourteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States, and that miscarriage at any time after the instant of conception caused by the administration of any poison or other noxious thing or the use of any instrument or other means shall be a violation of said section 11-3-1, unless the same be necessary to preserve the life of a woman who is pregnant." (Emphasis added.)

Of course, the Rhode Island law will stand or fall on two parts of the act. One, will the proviso that life begins at conception and is entitled to Fourteenth Amendment protection circumvent the recent United States Supreme Court decision of Roe v. Wade,___U. S.___, 35 L. Ed. 2d 147, 93 S. Ct.___? This case, decided January 22, 1973, is specifically mentioned in the preamble to the Rhode Island act.

Two, does the limitation that an abortion can only be performed when necessary to preserve the "life" of a pregnant woman circumvent that portion of Roe v. Wade which makes reference to "life or health"?

We are not positive of the validity of the Rhode Island law. However, a reading of the Roe v. Wade case would indicate that Rhode Island may have an uphill battle in sustaining the validity of the law in the already started court test.

The enclosure with your request for this opinion had the following notation:

> "The Rhode Island law had no more than passed the Legislature and gone into effect than it was challenged before a three judge federal court panel. I have personally visited with Mr. Allen of the Rhode Island Attorney General's Office, concerning his defense of their new abortion law. He is not optimistic of the outcome in the lower federal court but neither is he pessimistic.

> He believes that the expert medical and scientific testimony they have assembled for use in their defense brief, proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that all human life begins at the instant of conception. There was no such medical record in either the Georgia or Texas defense briefs, and thus the Supreme Court did not address itself to or answer the basic question of when life begins in their January 22, 1973 decision on abortion."

On the matter of medical testimony being presented to the United States Supreme Court, we point out that an appeal by the State of Connecticut was recently denied by the United States Supreme Court as was the request for a rehearing. That case was Markle, et al. v. Aberle, et al., Supreme Court Case numbers 72-56 and 72-730, and the rehearing was denied on April 17, 1973. Nebraska, as amicus curiae (friend of the court), filed a brief in the Supreme Court supporting the State of Connecticut. This state was joined as amici by the States of Arizona, California, Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Missouri, Montana, New Hamshire, North Dakota, Utah, and West Virginia. One of the primary reasons urged for rehearing is that Connecticut did have a full evidentiary hearing which included detailed relevant medical testimony. As already noted, the Supreme Court of the United States denied the request.

As we have pointed out, probably the most important aspect of the Rhode Island law is the legislative edict that "human life" begins at conception and is a "person" within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

In Roe v. Wade the Supreme Court seemed to reach conflicting conclusions on the matter of when "life begins" and when that life, whenever it begins, is entitled to Fourteenth Amendment protection.

First the Court said: "We need not resolve the difficult question of when life begins." Then the Court said that its review of authorities: ". . . persuades us that the word 'person' as used in the Fourteenth Amendment, does not include the unborn." The question of when life begins and when that life, no matter when it begins, is entitled to protection by the state seemed to be two different things, according to the Supreme Court. As to when life begins, the Court pointed out the divergent views of theologians, philosophers, and doctors and indicated that judges, if the aforementioned cannot decide, will not speculate on the question when life begins.

On this the Court said:

> ". . . We need not resolve the difficult question of when life beings. When those trained in the respective disciplines of medicine, philosophy, and theology are unable to arrive at any consensus, the judiciary, at this point in the development of man's knowledge, is not in a position to speculate as to the answer.
> "It should be sufficient to note briefly the wide divergence of thinking on this most sensitive and difficult question. There has always been strong support for the view that life does not begin until live birth. This was the belief of the Stoics. It appears to be the predominant, though not the unanimous, attitude of the Jewish faith. It may be taken to represent also the position of a large segment of the Protestant community, insofar as that can be ascertained; organized groups that have taken a formal position on the abortion issue have generally regarded abortion as a matter for the conscience of the individual and her family. As we have noted, the common law found greater significance in quickening. Physicians and their scientific colleagues have regarded that event with less interest and have tended to focus either upon conception or upon live birth or upon the interim point at which the fetus becomes 'viable,' that is, potentially able to live outside the mother's womb, albeit with artificial aid. Viability is usually placed at about seven months (28 weeks) but may occur earlier, even at 24 weeks. The Aristotelian theory of 'mediate animation,' that held sway throughout the Middle Ages and the Renaissance in Europe, continued to be official Roman Catholic dogma until the 19th century, despite opposition to this 'ensoulment' theory from those in the Church who would recognize the existence of life from the moment of conception. The latter is now, of course, the official belief of the Catholic Church. As one of the briefs amicus discloses, this is a view strongly held by many non-Catholics as well, and by many physicians. Substantial problems for precise definition of this view are posed, however, by new embryological data that purport to indicate that conception is a 'process' over time, rather than an event, and by new medical techniques such as menstrual extraction, the 'morning-after' pill, implantation of embryos, artifical insemination, and even artifical wombs.

"In areas other than criminal abortion the law has been reluctant to endorse any theory that life, as we recognize it, begins before live birth or to accord legal rights to the unborn except in narrowly defined situations and except when the rights are contingent upon live birth. For example, the traditional rule of tort law had denied recovery for prenatal injuries even though the child was born alive. That rule has been changed in almost every jurisdiction. In most States recovery is said to be permitted only if the fetus was viable, or at least quick, when the injuries were sustained, though few courts have squarely so held. In a recent development, generally opposed by the commentators, some States permit the parents of a stillborn child to maintain an action for wrongful death because of prenatal injuries. Such an action, however, would appear to be one to vindicate the parent's interest and is thus consistent with the view that the fetus, at most, represents only the potentiality of life. Similarly, unborn > children have been recognized as acquiring rights or interest by way of inheritance or other devolution of property, and have been represented by guardians ad litem. Perfection of the interests involved, again, has generally been contingent upon live birth. In short, the unborn have never been recognized in the law as persons in a whole sense." (Emphasis added.)

Though the Court did not decide when life begins it did decide at what stage of fetal development the state gains a "compelling interest" in protecting that life. That stage is at the time of "viability." This is when the unborn child is supposed to be capable of living outside the womb. As is seen by the foregoing quotation from the Court's opinion this is between 24 and 28 weeks. We point out, for your information, that there have been reported cases of survival when birth took place even prior to the 24th week. With new developments in the field of medicine known as fetology, such as the artificial placenta, this time of viability may be reduced even further.

In any event, whenever "viability" occurs, and it is obviously some time after conception, the state may legislate to protect the unborn. On this the Court said:

> "With respect to the State's important and legitimate interest in the health of the mother, the 'compelling' point, in the light of present medical knowledge, is at approximately the end of the first trimester. This is so because of the now established medical fact, referred to above at p. 34, that until the end of the first trimester mortality in abortion is less than mortality in normal childbirth. It follows that, from and after this point, a State may regulate the abortion procedure to the extent that the regulation reasonably relates to the preservation and protection of maternal health. Examples of permissible state regulation in this area are requirements as to the qualifications of the person who is to perform the abortion; as to the licensure of that person; as to the facility in which the procedure is to be performed, that is, whether it must be a hospital or may be a clinic or some other place of less-than-hospital status; as to the licensing of the facility; and the like.
> "This means, on the other hand, that, for the period of pregnancy prior to this 'compelling' point, the attending physician, in consultation with his patient, is free to determine, without regulation by the State, that in his medical judgment the patient's pregnancy should be terminated. If that decision is reached, the judgment may be effectuated by an abortion free of interference by the State.
> "With respect to the State's important and legitimate interest in potential life, the 'compelling' point is at viability. This is so because the fetus then presumably has the capability of meaningful life outside the mother's womb. State regulation > protective of fetal life after viability thus has both logical and biological justifications. If the State is interested in protecting fetal life after viability, it may go so far as to proscribe abortion during that period except when it is necessary to preserve the life or health of the mother."

A reading of the foregoing would seem to indicate that no matter when "life begins" the Legislature may not take steps to save that life until it is "viable" and, as noted above, when viability occurs is speculative at best. We also point out that the Court did not have before it in Roe v. Wade a legislative enactment that life begins at conception and is entitled to the protection of the Fourteenth Amendment. Therefore, we cannot, at this time, decide with precision and exactitude that such a provision is or is not constitutionally sound.

The second hurdle in the Rhode Island law is the restriction that an abortion can only be performed when necessary to save the "life" of the woman. The Court used the term "life or health." Although the Court did say "life or health" it could be construed that the word "health" must be a part of any abortion legislation. Again, we cannot say that the lack of a reference to the word "health" is constitutionally fatal to the Rhode Island law.

In conclusion, we are unable to say with specificity whether or not the Rhode Island law is a constitutionally viable act. Inasmuch as it is already in the courts, we should have some judicial interpretation in the near future.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

(1) That the following provisions were motivated by the legislative intrusion of the United States Supreme Court, by virtue of its decision removing the protection afforded the unborn. This act is in no way to be construed as implementing, condoning, or approving abortions at any stage of unborn human development, but is rather an expression of the will of the people of the State of Nebraska and the members of the Legislature to provide protection for the life of the unborn child whenever possible, until such protection can be afforded by an appropriate amendment to the United States Constitution.

(2) That the members of the Legislature expressly deplore the destruction of the unborn human lives which has and will occur in Nebraska as a consequence of the Supreme Court's decision on abortion.

(3) That it is in the interest of the people of the State of Nebraska that every precaution be taken to insure the protection of every viable unborn child being aborted, and every precaution be taken to provide life-supportive procedures to insure the unborn child its continued life after its abortion.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> Almighty Father, in decisions before us which effect the lives of human beings, give us an equation between the telescopic and the microscopic view of life. May we endeavor to see issues in their minute details and also from a long range perspective. May we not be absorbed in the tyranny of trifles and lose the meaning of the larger issues. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 8, 1973

Mr. Speaker, and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. Speaker and Senators:

With reluctance and with the cautions outlined herein, I have today signed into law LB 547.

This measure attempts to clear the way, as authorized by the people in approving a constitutional amendment last year, for committing future legislatures and the executive to action on future capital construction.

In effect, by LB 547, the Legislature has attempted to set up the machinery to allow the binding of future appropriations.

A closer look at the bill indicates that it may have some drafting deficiencies which may require future action by your body.

Evidently your intention was to allow for construction contracts to be binding over a number of years.

It would appear that you may not have accomplished that end since the bill provides, "Construction may be commenced after contracts are awarded, but the obligation of the state in any fiscal year under such contracts shall not exceed the amount appropriated for that purpose in such fiscal year."

Such language could impair even starting construction if this bid were in excess of your authorization for a given year.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 48
May 9, 1973

Senator J. W. Burbach
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Burbach:

In your letter of May 3, 1973, you ask our opinion as to the constitutionality of L. B. 534. This bill would amend Sections 77-1226.01 and 77-1226.02, R. R. S. 1943, to give the exemption provided for in Section 77-1226.01 to goods stored in bonded and licensed storage areas owned by the owner of such goods, when the goods are intended for and are shipped to final destinations outside the state, even though such bonded and licensed storage areas are not made available to the general public for compensation.

We will not comment on the details of the bill or the mechanics for the implementation of it, but will confine our discussion to the constitutionality of the general purpose of the bill. The exemption which would be granted by this bill, as well as that granted by the present statutes to goods, wares and merchandise stored in transit in bonded and licensed warehouses available to the general public for compensation, is authorized, if at all, by Article VIII, Section 2A of the Nebraska Constitution, which provides:

> "The Legislature may establish bonded and licensed warehouses or storage areas for goods, wares and merchandise in transit in the state which are intended for and which are shipped to final destinations outside this state upon leaving such warehouses or storage areas, and may exempt such goods, wares and merchandise from ad volorem taxation while in such storage areas. (Adopted, 1960.)"

The basic question we must decide is whether this constitutional provision authorizes an exemption to goods belonging to the owner of the warehouse or storage area in which they are stored, when such warehouse or storage area is not available to the public in general, but is used by the owner solely for the storage of his own goods. We find nothing in Section 2A which expressly excludes the exemption from goods owned by the owner of the warehouse or storage area, nor which requires that the bonded and licensed warehouses or storage areas be available to the public generally. If a warehouse or storage area can be bonded and licensed, although not available to the public, and if the goods, wares and merchandise stored in such warehouse or storage area are in transit and are intended for and are shipped to final destinations outside the state upon leaving such warehouse or storage area, such goods, wares and merchandise would appear to come within the literal language of Section 2A, and would be authorized by such section to be exempted from taxation.

On January 5, 1973, the Nebraska Supreme Court decided the case of Norden Laboratories, Inc. v. County Board of Equalization, 189 Neb. 437, 203 N. W. 2d 152. This case involved an interpretation of Sections 77-1226.01 to 77-1226.04, as they presently read. The plaintiff in that case asked the court to construe the present statutes to accomplish the result which would be accomplished by L. B. 534. The trial court held that the present statutes authorized the exemption of goods, wares and merchandise stored by the owner in its own licensed, bonded warehouse. The Supreme Court reversed, but did it solely on the basis of statutory construction, and not on constitutional grounds. The court held that the definition of bonded and licensed warehouses in Section 77-1226.02, as being those engaged in the business of storing goods, wares and merchandise for compensation, which issued warehouse receipts to the owner or depositor thereof, operating under a bailee-bailor relationship, offering and making available its facilities to the public generally for various goods, commodities, products or services and continuously making available and using its facilities for public storage for compensation, prevented the plaintiff from coming within the language of the statute.

We have examined the briefs of the parties to that suit, to see whether the constitutional issue was raised. We find that the County Board of Equalization did raise the constitutional issue, contending that a construction of the statute in accordance with the plaintiff's position would be in violation of the constitution, because unauthorized by Article VIII, Section 2A of the constitution. The court did not specifically reject that argument, but did not see fit to discuss it, and, by deciding the case solely on the basis of statutory construction, seemed to imply that different statutory language would have resulted in a different decision.

Of special significance, we believe, in determining what the Supreme Court would say about this question, is the fact that Justices Boslaugh and McCown dissented, saying that, in their opinion, the exemption should be granted to the plaintiff under the present statute. In so holding, these justices, at least, were specifically rejecting the constitutional argument of the defendant. In view of the requirement of the Nebraska Constitution that an act of the Legislature shall not be declared unconstitutional except on the vote of five members of the Supreme Court, it would appear that L. B. 534 would not be declared to be unconstitutional if any one of the justices voting with the majority in the Norden Laboratories case were to join the two dissenting justices in holding that Section 2A would authorize the exemption which would be granted by L. B. 534. In our opinion, such an exemption comes within the literal language of Section 2A, and, in our opinion, would be upheld by the Supreme Court.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 49.
May 9, 1973

Senator Roland A. Luedtke
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Re: L. B. 574

Dear Senator Luedtke:

This is in reply to your request concerning our opinion as to the constitutionality of that portion of Section 3 of L. B. 574 which provides in part that no person convicted of murdering certain designated officers and sentenced to a term of life imprisonment "shall be eligible for parole and release from confinement until he shall have served not less than fifty years in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex."

As you know, Section 13, Article IV of the Nebraska Constitution provides in part:

> "The Legislature shall provide by law for the establishment of a Board of Parole and the qualification of its members. Said board, or a majority thereof, shall have power to grant paroles after conviction and judgment, under such conditions as may be prescribed by law, for any offenses committed against the criminal laws of this state except treason and cases of impeachment. * * *."

You will note that said constitutional provision specifically provides that the Legislature may prescribe by law the conditions under which the Board of Parole shall have power to grant paroles. The provision in L. B. 574 would constitute such a condition and, in our opinion, would be within the above constitutional provision. It is a matter of when a person convicted for the type of crime described becomes eligible and is no different so far as the constitution is concerned, than the present statutes under which the parole board is operating which require a certain portion of a sentence to pass before the offender is eligible for a parole.

We should also call to your attention that the same section of the constitution establishes a Board of Pardons with power to grant respites, reprieves, pardons, or commutations in all cases of conviction for offenses against the laws of the state, except treason and cases of impeachment. This constitutional grant of power to the Board of Pardons is unlimited and has no references to conditions set up by the Legislature as does the provision relating to the Board of Parole. Therefore, even though the section of L. B. 574 to which you refer is passed, it would still be possible for the Board of Pardons to release the individual sooner by a pardon or some form of repreive or commutation, which power, as mentioned earlier, may not be limited by the Legislature.

Although not a constitutional matter, we call your attention to the obvious fact that a provision such as is contained in Section 3 of L. B. 574 is no guarantee that a person so convicted would serve said fifty years in confinement, as you are no doubt well aware, since any future Legislature could change this provision.

If we can be of further assistance to you in this matter, please contact us.

Very truly yours,

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

EIGHTIETH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, May 10, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:02 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

> In this prayer, O God, we come to Thee as children to a loving Father. We pray that thou wilt help our senators to face the problems that confront them, not alone by giving them wisdom greater than their own, but also by relieving their minds of all other anxieties.
> May they now turn over to Thee loved ones who need the healing touch of the Great Physician, with every confidence that Thou wilt hear our prayer of intercession, and as we do the work that is before us, that Thou wilt do Thy work of healing in those whom we love. May Thy help be so plain and practical in our family affairs that we shall come to believe strongly in the help that Thou dost offer in our state affairs. Deliver thy servants from personal worries, that they may be able to give themselves wholly to the challenge of this hour. In Jesus' name. Amen.

GENERAL FILE

LEGISLATIVE BILL 472. Title read. Considered.

Standing Committee amendments found in the Journal on page 1389 for the Seventy-first Day were adopted.

Mr. Warner offered the following amendments:

1. Strike sections 1 to 14 and insert the following:

"Section 1. The Legislature recognizes its responsibility under Article VII, section 1, of the Constitution of Nebraska to provide financial support to the public schools of this state. It is the purpose of this act to meet such responsibility and at the same time to provide a reduction in property taxes and to place limitations on the total expenditures for public school purposes within the state. Funds provided under this act shall be in addition to those furnished under the School Foundation and Equalization Act.

Sec. 2. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the Public School Support Trust Fund into which shall be placed such funds as are required to be deposited therein under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 3. (1) State aid to the public schools shall be increased over a two-year period so that the state shall bear fifty per cent of the current operational cost of the public schools, which specifically excludes capital construction and acquisition funds, payments of interest and principal on bonded indebtedness.

(2) There shall be deducted from such current operational costs for purposes of determining the cost to be borne by the state, receipts from the following sources: (a) Tuition and transportation reimbursement received from any source, (b) all fines and license fees, (c) all payments received from the educational service unit, (d) all federal funds received for vocational education, (e) public power district sales taxes, (f) insurance tax fund, (g) state apportionment, (h) state appropriations for special education, vocational education and drivers education, and (i) other miscellaneous local and county revenue receipts, with the remainder of such cost to be borne locally. For purposes of computation under this act, the actual payments and reimbursements received in the immediately preceding school year shall be used.

(3) The Legislature shall increase appropriations for the aid of public schools so that (a) for the 1975-76 school year one half of such percentage to be borne by the state shall be provided, and (b) for the 1976-77 school year the total of such percentage shall be provided.

Sec. 4. Of the total appropriation from the Public School Support Trust Fund, five million dollars shall be set aside annually for allocation by the State Board of Education under the provisions of section 8 of this act and, commencing with the 1976-77 school year and subsequent school year, five million two hundred thousand dollars shall be set aside annually for allocation by the State Board of Education under the provisions of section 9 of this act. The remainder shall be distributed under the provisions of sections 5 and 6 of this act.

Sec. 5. After making the deductions provided in section 4 of this act, sixty per cent of the total appropriation to the Public School Support Trust Fund shall be distributed to the various school districts in the proportion that the number of pupils enrolled in all grades as of the last Friday in September bears to the total enrollment in all the public schools of this state.

Sec. 6. (1) The remainder of the total appropriation to the Public School Support Trust Fund shall be distributed to the various school districts so as to provide as nearly as may be practicable, a minimum per pupil financial support in the 1975-76 school year, equal to the lesser of the following: (a) The current expense of the previous year increased by an amount equal to fifty dollars per pupil for the year in which the budget is being established, or (b) three hundred fifty dollars for each pupil in kindergarten, seven hundred dollars for each pupil in grades one to six, seven hundred fifty dollars in grades seven and eight, and eight hundred dollars in grades nine to twelve. To be eligible for aid under this section, (a) each Class II, III, IV, or V school district must levy a tax equal to the mill levy that would be required if the total cost throughout the state to be borne locally in the 1976-77 school year and subsequent school years were to be raised by a uniform mill levy, (b) each Class I school district must levy a tax equal to three-sevenths of such mill levy, except that a Class I school district which is part of a Class VI school district offering instruction in grades seven to twelve must levy a tax equal to two-sevenths of such mill levy, and (c) each Class VI school district must levy a tax equal to four-sevenths of such mill levy, except that a Class VI school district offering instruction in grades seven to twelve must levy a tax equal to five-sevenths of such mill levy.

(2) When the population density in any school district is less than five persons per square mile the total financial support to each school district within the county under subsection (1) of this section insured for such district shall be increased by the following percentages: (a) If the density is four or more but less than five persons per square mile, ten per cent, (b) if the density is three or more but less than four persons per square mile, fifteen per cent, (c) if the density is two or more but less than three persons per square mile, twenty per cent, (d) if the density is one or more but less than two persons per square mile, twenty-five per cent, and (e) if the density is less than one person per square mile, thirty per cent. Any scool district showing a density greater than provided in this subsection shall not qualify for such percentage increases.

Sec. 7. From the sum calculated pursuant to section 6 of this act, each district shall subtract operating funds obtained from (1) the state under section 5 of this act, (2) the qualifying levy prescribed in section 6 of this act; Provided, operating funds received from that portion of the local tax levy which exceeds the minimum prescribed in section 6 of this act shall be excluded from such computation, (3) the insurance tax fund, (4) state apportionment, (5) vocational education receipts, and (6) all receipts from local and county sources except local district taxes.

Sec. 8. The amount provided by section 4 of this act for allocation under this section shall be reserved for allocation by the State Board of Education to those school districts experiencing hardship occasioned by an abnormal increase or decrease in enrollment in any one school year. Any allocation under this section may be made only upon application to the board and a showing of hardship, and shall be for one year only. Any amount not allocated under this section shall be divided and allocated under sections 5 and 6 of this act.

Sec. 9. The amount provided by section 4 of this act for allocation under this section shall be reserved for allocation by the State Board of Education to those school districts which (1) furnish transportation to their pupils, (2) provide a special program for gifted children, or (3) provide a special program for culturally or educationally deprived children. It is the intent of this section that the state pay one half the cost of such transportation and special programs. To qualify for funds under this section, such special programs must be approved by the State Board of Education. Criteria for the classification of gifted and culturally and educationally deprived children shall be established by the State Board of Education.

Sec. 10. The State Department of Education shall review the budget of each school district for compliance with the provisions of this act. Each school district shall, on or before August 15 of each year, submit the required information to the State Department of Education for such review. The State Department of Education shall specify the required information. The maximum current operating expenditure budget for each school district for the school year 1974-75 shall not exceed the lesser of (a) a five per cent increase over the current operating budget for 1973-74, or (b) a twelve per cent increase over the current operating budget for 1972-73. A total increase in current expense of not more than five per cent above the 1974-75 budget shall be allowed for each district for 1975-76. Current operating expenditures shall not include any expenditures or allowances for capital construction, bonded indebtedness, or depreciation. Funds received under sections 7 and 11 of this act shall not be considered for purposes of determining such percentage increases. On or before October 15 of each year, the State Department of Education shall notify the State Board of Equalization and Assessment of the amount required by this act to be raised during the next calendar year as required by section 14 of this act.

Sec. 11. During the 1974-77 period, no school district shall introduce any new or innovative program, as defined by the State Department of Education which would increase its total cost above that provided in this act except upon unanimous vote of the school board or board of education or a majority vote of the electors of the district voting on the proposition at a general or special school election. This provision shall not apply to any exemplary or innovative programs which are totally funded by federal funds. After such period, the cost of any such program shall not be taken into account for purposes of this act until the program has been in operation for three consecutive years.

Sec. 12. Payments under this act shall be made in four approximately equal installments, one on September 30, one on January 15, one on March 15, and one on May 15 of each school year. The September 30 payment shall be an estimated payment. The first such payment shall be made on September 30, 1975.

Sec. 13. The State Department of Education shall promulgate such rules and regulations as shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 14. (1) The State Board of Education shall, on or before September 30, 1974, certify to the Governor, the Executive Board of the Legislative Council, and the indivdual members of the State Board of Equalization and Assessment the amount necessary to be raised by state taxation for purposes of this act during the next calendar year, which amount shall be twenty-five per cent of the actual operational cost of the public schools for the immediately preceding school year less the deductions provided in section 3 of this act.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Opinion No. 50
May 11, 1973

Senator Glenn A. Goodrich
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

You ask if the abortion bill, L. B. 286, as amended, is constitutional. Its constitutionality has to be measured in light of the United States Supreme Court's decisions in Roe v. Wade, ___U. S.___, 35 L. Ed. 2d 147, 93 S. Ct.___, and Doe v. Bolton, ___U. S. ___, 35 L. Ed. 2d 201, 93 S. Ct. ___(1973).

After reviewing those cases and L. B. 286, we are unable to say that the Supreme Court would or would not uphold the bill if it is passed.

There are some parts of the bill that might have problems with the Supreme Court ruling. For example, Section 3 requires:

> "Every physician consulted about abortion by an expectant mother shall inform her of agencies and services available to assist her to carry the pregnancy to natural term, and shall further inform the expectant mother as to all reasonably possible medical and mental consequences resulting from the performance of an abortion."

Failure to comply, according to Section 4, would make the doctor subject to fine and/or imprisonment. For the period of the pregnancy covering the time to the approximate end of the first trimester this section may possibly be construed to violate this part of the Wade ruling:

> "For the stage prior to approximately the end of the first trimester, the abortion decision and its effectuation must be left to the medical judgment of the pregnant woman's attending physician."

The next section that may or may not be construed as invalid is Section 5 which now provides:

> "No abortion shall be performed or prescribed after the unborn child has reached viability, except when necessary to preserve the woman from an imminent peril that substantially endangers her life or health. No abortion procedure employed pursuant to this provision shall have the direct or indirect effect of terminating the viability of the unborn child prior to, during, or following the procedure."

We have no trouble with the proscription of abortion after viability except when necessary to preserve the woman from an imminent peril that endangers her life or health. However, the restriction of the methods used to accomplish the abortion may be construed as too restrictive. About the only methods left are hysterotomy and induced labor. The second sentence of the quoted provision would, for example, eliminate the possibility of using the saline injection method because the possibility of death to the unborn child is almost one hundred per cent. Even the hysterotomy method could cause grave danger to the unborn at very early stages of viability. The big problem here is that there is no definite time period of when viability occurs. Even the Supreme Court recognized this in Wade when it said:

> ". . . Viability is usually placed at about seven months (28 weeks) but may occur earlier, even at 24 weeks. . . ."

This problem of when viability occurs was discussed in our opinion number 47, dated May 7, 1973.

The next possible problem with the bill is that of the matter of obtaining consent from a parent or guardian of a minor or the consent of the father of the unborn child. The consent requirements are in Sections 8 and 9 of the bill. In its decision, the Supreme Court left this area up in the air. In Wade they said in a footnote at the end of the majority opinion:

> "Neither in this opinion nor in Doe v. Bolton, post, do we discuss the father's rights, if any exist in the constitutional context, in the abortion decision."

What the Supreme Court would say about the consent requirements is a matter of pure speculation.

Although it may be argued that the statistical requirements of Section 19 of the bill may fly in the face of Bolton, we do not believe so. However, again, it is pointed out that to give an exact answer is impossible.

In conclusion, we cannot be sure if L.B. 286 is valid or invalid but we note again that probably the second sentence of Section 5 could be the most troublesome for us in defending the validity of the act.

Very truly yours,

Opinion No. 51
May 11, 1973

Senator John W. DeCamp
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol

Dear Senator:

You ask if the abortion bill, L.B. 286, as amended, is constitutional. You also ask if the severability clause in the bill will suffice to uphold the balance of the bill if part of the bill is declared unconstitutional.

In response to your first question we refer you to our opinion to Senator Goodrich, Number 50, dated May 11, 1973.

As for the effect of the severability clause, the rule in Nebraska is set out in Terry Carpenter, Inc. v. Wood, 177 Neb. 515, 129 N.W. 2d 475 (1964), as follows:

> "A declaration of severability in a legislative act is a declaration of the intent of the Legislature that it would have passed the act with the invalid parts omitted. State ex rel. Meyer v. County of Lancaster, 173 Neb. 195, 113 N.W. 2d 63. When a legislative enactment in which such a declaration appears contains valid and void provisions, the valid provisions will be upheld if it is > a complete law in itself, capable of enforcement and is not dependent upon that which is invalid; or, stated another way, when the invalid portions of the act are so interwoven with the rest that the act may not be operative with the void portions eliminated or where it is obvious from an inspection of the act that the invalid portion formed the inducement for the passage of the act, the whole act fails."

If a portion of L.B. 286 is declared unconstitutional, what is left would have to be looked at with the foregoing rule in mind to determine whether it would stand or fall.

Opinion No. 52
May 11, 1973

Senator Terry Carpenter
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Carpenter:

In your letter of May 9, 1973, you have submitted to us some proposed amendments to L.B. 534, and have asked our opinion as to the validity of these amendments, particularly in light of the case of Norden Laboratories, Inc. v. County Board of Equalization, 189 Neb. 437, 203 N.W. 2d 152. We see no constitutional difficulties with your amendments, or conflicts with the Norden Laboratories case.

Among other things, your amendments would increase the fine for violation of the act, increase the bond required of bonded and licensed warehouses and storage areas, and change the agency designated to license storage areas from the Tax Commissioner to the Public Service Commission. We see no constitutional difficulties at all with respect to these matters.

One of your amendments would amend Section 2 of the bill by striking subparagraph (2) (a) of the original bill and substituting therefor the following:

> "(2) (a) Bonded and licensed storage areas as used in Chapter 77, article 12, shall mean specifically defined storage areas which (i) may be used for in-transit storing or storage for shipment of goods, wares, and merchandise of the owner of such storage area, (ii) are made available to or used by the general public for compensation, (iii) are advertised by means of a printed sign with letters not less than three and one-half inches in height and one inch in width bearing the words 'general public storage area' displayed in the involved bonded and licensed storage area in a place which can be observed by the general public, and (iv) are licensed and bonded by the Public Service Commission prior to January 1, 1974, or January 1 of each calendar year thereafter if exemption under Section 77-1226.01 is to be claimed for such calendar year, except that storage areas defined under this act shall not include areas used exclusively for the storage of livestock, poultry, fish, and fur-bearing animals before processing."

As we indicated in our opinion of May 8, 1973 to Senator Burbach, we do not believe that the Norden Laboratories case stands for the proposition that an exemption to goods owned by the owner of the warehouse or storage area would be in violation of Article VIII, Section 2A of the Nebraska Constitution. In this respect, your amendment would not go as far as the original version of L.B. 534, which would permit the exemption to the goods owned by the owner of a completely private storage area. Your amendment would permit the exemption only if the storage area was also made available to the public. If we were correct in our opinion to Senator Burbach that the original bill was valid in this respect, your amendment would be in at least as strong a position.

You have also asked about the validity of the exclusion of areas used exclusively for the storage of livestock, poultry, fish, and fur-bearing animals before processing. The question there is the reasonableness of the classification. The general rule is that the Legislature may classify persons, corporations and property for purposes of legislation, but the classification must rest upon real differences in situation and circumstances of members of the class relative to the subject of legislation, and the law must operate uniformly on every member of the class so designated. The basic question, then, is whether there is a rational basis for treating livestock, poultry, fish, and fur-bearing animals before processing, which are being held "in storage" for interstate shipment differently from other property held in storage for such interstate shipment. It appears to us that the court could readily find a basis for such different treatment. In the first place, one would not ordinarily use the term "storage" in connection with the holding of live animals, and it is questionable whether they were intended to be included under Article VIII, Section 2A of the constitution. Furthermore, live animals require constant care, feeding, watering, etc. and, if kept for any appreciable time, may grow or gain weight. The Legislature would, in our opinion, be fully justified in taking the position that this was not the type of "storage" it intended to authorize an exemption for. We therefore see no difficulty with this provision in your amendment.

Very truly yours,

> O God, prepare our hearts and minds for the business of this day that we may throughout behave with genuine courtesy and honor before our colleagues. Help us to be just and honest in all our dealings. May we listen to those who have something to say but never lose our own capacity to discriminate between right and wrong. Save us from the fallacy of depending upon our personality or ingenuity to solve our problems, and make us more willing to do the hard work that is necessary to be well informed. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Honorable Richard F. Proud
Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senators:

I have today reluctantly signed into law LB 494. Although I am concerned, as you apparently are, about a need for disaster and emergency preparedness I question the broad delegation of powers granted under this act. I realize that this is a "model" bill but so was the enactment of the Life Safety code which you have now repealed.

You are aware of my feelings about the need for a strong executive. I am equally concerned, however, with checks and balances. Those may not totally exist within LB 494. There is also a danger that local control may be further eroded.

Finally, there is a substantial financial requirement placed upon state and local government in this act. There is, however, no appropriation for these purposes. This means that local governments must again raise taxes while state government must either fail to carry out its responsibility under the act or fail to perform other vital functions. We would have to take the position that until an appropriation was made for the purposes specified in the act the state will not be able to carry out those purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. James Exon

WHEREAS, the Midwest is presently encountering a severe shortage of all types of fuel; and

WHEREAS, at the present time such shortage can be alleviated only by a reduction in use of all types of fuel; and

WHEREAS, any loss of efficiency and production caused by the fuel shortage in any industrial or commercial area will be detrimental to the best interests of all citizens of the state; and

WHEREAS, many Nebraska farmers will be desirous of participating in the revised feed grain program of the United State Department of Agriculture which reduces the set-aside from 25% to 10%, thus allowing more flexibility in the farmers' planting decisions and the placing of more acres in production; and

WHEREAS, a fuel shortage will make it difficult, if not impossible, for farmers to take advantage of this new and more flexible program; and

WHEREAS, a fuel shortage will also have an adverse effect on transportation within the state which, in turn, will cause a slowdown in business and industry.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Legislature strongly recommend to the citizens of Nebraska that conservation of all types of fuel is of prime importance to the general economic welfare of the entire state.

2. That, while business, industry, agriculture, and transportation in the state will be harmed by a fuel shortage, they also bear the responsibility of joining all citizens in the conservation of available fuel supplies.

3. That the following methods of conserving fuel be recommended to all citizens of the state: Efficient and reasonable use of automobiles, proper maintenance of automobiles, creation of car pools, shorter vacation trips, and travel at slower speeds.

4. That a recommendation be made to all home and building owners to maintain properly adjusted furnaces, inspect insulation to be certain of its adequacy, and reduce the use of electricity and air conditioning.

5. That all business and industry in the state follow the recommendation to use all motor vehicles in the most efficient manner possible.

6. That every citizen, irrespective of place of residence or occupation, make a strong effort to conserve all types of fuels.

7. That the Governor is hereby urged to issue an appropriate proclamation calling upon all the citizens of Nebraska to support this Resolution and work to bring about its goals.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 53
May 15, 1973

Senator Ramey C. Whitney
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Whitney:

This is in reply to your inquiry concerning L. B. 311.

It is our opinion that subsections (2) and (3) of section 2 carry over until after July 1, 1973, and were not intended to be limited only until June 30, 1973.

The limitation in subsection (1) of section 2 of the act, as you know, limits the matching of community-based services, as therein provided, until June 30, 1973.

However, subsection (2) of said section strikes out the present requirement of distributing on a pro rata basis in proportion to "local matching" when there are not sufficient funds available and refers to when funds are "insufficent to meet the budget requirements for all agencies." Thus, the insufficiency calling for a pro rata distribution now applies to budget requirements rather than matching requirements.

Section 8 of the act creates six mental retardation regions in the State and section 3 of the act provides that said regions shall prior to July 1, 1973, and each year thereafter beginning July 1, prepare a proposed budget for the Department of Public Institutions which shall review the same, attach its recommendations and transmit them to the Director of Administrative Services. The final budget for each such region is set by the Legislature.

With the new system of retardation regions submitting budgets to the State commencing on July 1, 1973, it would appear that the changes in subsection (2) of section 2 were meant to apply after July 1 since that subsection was changed to apply to "insufficent to meet the budget requirements" rather than "requirements for matching funds."

You also ask about subsection (3) of section 2. This section was not changed and remains the same as it is in the present statute. The wording of this subsection could apply after July 1 as well as before since it relates to the use to be made of matching funds and a new method of matching funds is contained in section 5 which commences July 1, 1973.

Looking at section 2 of this bill as a whole, the limiting words "until June 30, 1973" are contained in subsection (1) but not in subsection (2) or subsection (3). It is our opinion that subsection (3) would apply after July 1 since there was no change made in the section, and there is no comparable section for the use of the matching funds after July 1 set up by section 5.

The rule of statutory construction of "expressio unius est exclusio alterius" or loosely translated "express mention and implied exclusion" could be applied here--that is, by inserting dates in so many places, this subsection was impliedly intended to continue as it exists, in our opinion.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

Lincoln, Nebraska 68508
16 May 1973

MEMO FOR: Governor Exon
FROM: Burl Johnson
RE: Platte River

Flood crest today is in the Odessa vicinity. Volume and stage readings continue to meet current forecasts.

Lowland flooding of a relatively minor nature continues to occur.

Crest should reach Grand Island on the 17th, Duncan on the 19th, North Bend on the 20th, and Louisville on the 22nd.

By the time the crest reaches Ashland, it should be below flood stage.

We do not anticipate any further serious problems unless we have rain.

We do expect the North Platte to remain at a bank full level until irrigation starts. The flood crest is several days long. Therefore, the entire river operation should be carefully watched. We propose to continue to do so.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 16, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I am returning herewith LB 312 without my signature and with my objections.

I am vetoing this bill because of my convictions and am disappointed that the Legislature would not accept my attempt at a reasonable compromise on this very far-reaching legislation.

In my opinion, LB 312 is overly permissive with regard to detached facilities and could allow the larger banks to take unfair advantage of the smaller-sized institutions.

While it is true that branch banking itself is not involved in LB 312, there can be little question that your expansion of detached facilities from the present 2600 foot limitation to a distance of three miles from the principal location, and a second facility "within the city limits" is a giant step in that direction.

I concur that the present 2600 feet maximum separation from the chartered location is overly restrictive. But in considering liberalization of that law, may I suggest that you ask yourselves why did we have such a 2600 feet limitation in the first place?

All are aware of my suggestion that detached facilities could reasonably be increased to one within one mile and the second within three miles of the principal location. It is my view that, in a metropolitan area, a bank can meet the obligation of its charter, the obviously intended limitation thereof, and legitimately meet the need and convenience of its customers by having two detached facilities within a three mile radius of its headquarters.

To go beyond that area, say to 8 to 10 miles or more from its operation center, appears to violate the integrity of the traditional concepts of a bank being chartered to serve the needs of a particular area. When that principle is violated, you are giving nodding approval to full branch banking which, if eventually passed in Nebraska, will serve the unwise purpose of concentrating the vast power of the banking fraternity into a few hands.

While I recognize that the most intensive lobby pressure has been exercised pro and con on this matter, I am hopeful that each of you will exercise your own independent judgement, after a careful review of all of the implications when considering possible future action on this measure.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

Opinion No. 54
May 17, 1973

Honorable Ernest Chambers
Nebraska State Senator
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator:

With reference to your May 16 letter on L. B. 146 and L. B. 268 which deal with the crime of murder, your question is whether the delayed effective date of L. B. 146 will operate in such a way that it will in fact repeal L. B. 268. In our view, it will not. The method selected by the professional staff of the Legislature in restoring the procedural steps repealed by L. B. 146 was approved by this office.

Your letter states that you "have arguments if your reply is that L. B. 146 does not repeal L. B. 268 (or those sections with which both bills deal)". Undoubtedly those arguments and many others will be raised whenever there is a conviction for murder, and we hope to be able to meet them when the time comes.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Clarence A. H. Meyer
Attorney General

Sec. 6. For the 1973-74 school year, general fund budget of any school district may not be increased over its budget for the preceding year by more than the amount arrived at pursuant to the following computations: (1) To the amount of salary and salary related items shall be added an amount equal to two per cent of the salary and salary related items and then this total shall be increased by a factor or percentage which shall be the increase in the Cost of Living Index as established by the United States Department of Labor for the immediately preceding calendar year. To the amount resulting from this computation may be added an amount equal to any increase in employer contributions under the federal Social Security Act, which will take effect during the year for which the budget is being set, such amount to be computed based upon the number of employees and their salaries in the year preceding the year for which the budget is being set; (2) to the amount of other expenses shall be added an amount equal to two per cent of the other expenses and then this total shall be multiplied by a factor or percentagge which shall be the increase in the Wholesale Price Index as established by the United States Department of Commerce for the immediately preceding calendar year; and (3) the amounts resulting from computations pursuant to subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section shall be added together and shall constitute the dollar amount that the general fund portion of the budget described in section 2 of this act may be increased, except that if there is an increase in student enrollment, the amount determined under this subdivision may be further increased by the percentage increase in student enrollment.

Sec. 7. For purposes of this act, student enrollment shall mean average daily membership as defined by the State Department of Education.

Sec. 8. In making computations required pursuant to this act, the school districts shall use estimates whenever final figures are not available, but when final figures become available the amounts shall be recomputed. If the recomputation shows that less budget was required than was estimated, then the amount of difference shall be determined. Expenditures shall be reduced by the amount of such determination and the amount of such determination shall be carried forward into the next budget year as an item of general fund revenue for the district. If expenditures are made in excess of the amount permitted under this act, the State Board of Education through the State Department of Education shall for each dollar of excess expenditure subtract one dollar from any state funds being distributed to such district for general school purposes. The amounts so subtracted shall revert to the state General Fund. Such subtraction shall be from such funds next distributed to the school district and such district shall not use such excess expenditures in computing its succeeding budget or expenditure limitation.

Sec. 9. If the governing board of any school district desires to seek a budget higher than authorized by sections 2 to 6 of this act, such governing board may submit the higher budget issue to the voters of the district at either a general election or a special election called for that purpose. If a majority of the votes cast at such an election approve such higher budget, then that shall become the budget for the district.

Sec. 10. At the time of deciding to submit a budget to an election, the governing board shall, by resolution, show the following information: (1) The amount of the previous year's budget; (2) the allowable increase in such budget under this act, both as to percentage and dollar amount increases; (3) the dollar amount of increase above the limitation provided in sections 2 to 7 of this act sought to be approved in the election; and (4) the intended use of the funds which are in excess of the allowable increase under section 5 of this act.".

MEMO FOR: Governor Exon
FROM: Burl Johnson
RE: Platte River

We completed an air recon of entire Platte, North & South Platte Rivers yesterday.

North Platte River still bank full – but no visible problems.

South Platte. Still lowland flooding at Big Springs. High water but no flooding elsewhere.

Platte. At Brady the Department of Roads now repairing cuts in highway. Flood waters gradually receding.

The crest front is at Grand Island and waters are very high from North Platte down. Water is in channels near Grand Island.

Reservoirs in Wyoming near full. Well into flood pool at Glendo and Corps of Engineers anxious to begin releasing. The Laramie input now down substantially (2,500 CFS). At the state line the flow will be up to 6,000 CFS (or bank full). McConaughy still storing and only 180,000 acre feet below capacity (increase in storage was anticipated after 15 May).

We will now conduct from Lincoln, air recon twice per day, covering the 60 mile long flood crest and the down river stretch. We expect to continue this through Tuesday, 22 May.

No further problems anticipated, unless it rains. There will be a cumulative effect, however, of the continued high water. Farm interests along the Platte will become increasingly irritated at the continued high waters. There will also be an increasing concern about mosquitoes along the river, however, I do not anticipate emergency fund requests for this purpose. Health Department has been advised.

Friday, May 18, 1973

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:02 a.m., President Marsh presiding.

PRAYER

The prayer was offered by Dr. Edward L. Jeambey, Assistant Pastor, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Lincoln.

> Eternal and Almighty God--the Creator and Sustainer of us all: Help us to meet those conditions that enable us to possess a closer relationship with Thee. Help us to be peacemakers for Thou dids't say: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." As peacemakers may we rise from creatures of God to sons of God. Thou dids't also say: "Except ye be converted, and becomes as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven". May we humble ourselves as little children that we might become great in Thy sight and great in the Divine kingdom, and so be equipped to do our duty on earth with efficiency, and excellence. Guide and direct us in the affairs and deliberations of the day, and may the conclusions we reach be satisfactory to the claims of righteousness and justice.

Opinion No. 55
May 18, 1973

Senator Richard Maresh
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

On 11 May 1973 Senator Burbach offered the following amendment on that date to L. B. 472:

> "(1) In addition to the amounts specified in section 3 and 4 of this act, an additional amount shall be appropriated by the legislature to provide assistance to those school districts who, because of their unique geographic and demographic > characteristics, have a high cost per pupil, but receive very little state aid. This additional aid shall be provided to such school districts only if their current operating expenditures for the preceding year exceeded $1,000 per pupil and the school district offered instruction in grades K-12.

> "(2) The State Department of Education shall establish rules and regulations for the distribution of the funds provided for in this section. The Department of Education shall consider such factors as: (a) Valuation per pupil (b) student teacher ratio (c) local effort and (d) other sources of assistance available."

This letter is in response to your request for our opinion on the constitutionality of the above quoted amendment. In connection therewith we note that the amendment declares that the Legislature shall appropriate additional financial assistance to those school districts who, "because of their unique geographic and demographic characteristics, have a high cost per pupil, but receive very little state aid." We also note that the amendment does not declare what constitutes "unique geographic and demographic characteristics" nor does it define what constitutes "a high cost per pupil" nor does it define what constitutes "very little state aid." To supply such defects requires legislation. In such cases it is well settled law that where a legislative act is incomplete, so that it cannot be complied with without additional provisions that are not indicated by the act itself, the courts cannot supply such defects so as to give constitutional validity to the act. State v. Reneau, 75 Neb. 1, 106 N. W. 451 (1905). Consequently we are of the opinion that the constitutionality of Senator Burbach's amendment to L. B. 472 on 11 May 1973 would be very difficult, if not impossible, to defend.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER
Attorney General

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 17, 1973

Mr. Vince Brown
Clerk of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. Brown:

We have received Engrossed Legislative Bills Nos. 311 and 484.

These Bills were signed by me on May 17, 1973 and delivered to the Secretary of State.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. James Exon

May 18, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

In the past few days, there have been amendments to LB 582 by Senator Carpenter and Senator Marvel to prevent the Department of Administrative Services from accepting competitive bidding on computer services for the State of Nebraska.

I wish to alert the Senators and your constitutents to the fact that the acceptance of such amendments would lock in the state of Nebraska to one supplier and one supplier only, International Business Machines, for such equipment that presently costs the taxpayers of Nebraska approximately $1.5 million per year.

While such amendments would be good for IBM, it would thwart the competitive bidding process and prevent the state from accepting lower bids for such equipment and services.

As you know, we now have an independent group of computer experts from outside Nebraska, recommended and supplied by the Council of State Governments, to review our computer arrangements and to recommend any possible changes and what the best bid might be.

With the staunch opposition of Senator Marvel and Senator Carpenter, the administration has offered bids for computer services, and we have bids from three recognized leaders in the industry. These firms include International Business Machines, the Honeywell Corporation, and Univac. The administration certainly has not ruled out the possibility that International Business Machines will proceed with their services to the State of Nebraska, and we were pleased to note that their bid to the Department of Administrative Services was several hundred thousand dollars less per year than presently charged. It is our feeling that the experts by the completely independent and neutral source, the Council of State Governments, are far better equipped to make recommendations on computer requirements and competitive prices to the State of Nebraska than either Senator Marvel or Senator Carpenter, the latter of whom has admitted on the Legislative floor that he knows nothing whatsoever about computers and their uses.

I urge caution in accepting the amendments of either Senator Carpenter or Senator Marvel in this area.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon

UNANIMOUS CONSENT–Print in Journal

Mr. Marvel asked unanimous consent to have the following letter from the Governor printed in the Journal at this time. No objections. So ordered.

May 16, 1973

The Honorable Richard F. Proud
Speaker of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Proud:

I appreciate the support of several Senators concerning offers of assistance in regard to the Emergency Fund.

With the expenditures we have authorized in regard to the present flooding on the Platte, I recommend that the Legislature reappropriate the unexpended balance in the Emergency Fund for fiscal year 1972-73.

This coupled with my budget recommendations will allow a fund of approximately $500,000 for emergency expenditures. This will not be expended unless a real emergency should occur.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

Opinion No. 56
May 21, 1973

Senator Glenn A. Goodrich
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator:

In your May 17 letter you ask several questions regarding approval by the Legislature of appointments made by the Governor. The questions arise because the constitutional provisions relating to this subject were extensively revised by amendments proposed by the 1972 Legislature and adopted by the people at the 1972 general election.

Our reply will relate solely to the office of member of the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska State Colleges, because of the particular factual situation relating to that office. Different conclusions could apply to other offices, and a number of years and court decisions will probably intervene before all of the effects of this constitutional amendment are known.

The terms of members of the Board of Trustees begin on January 1, and that particular date usually falls on a day when the Legislature is not in session, since its meetings commence "on the first Tuesday in January of each year." Therefore this particular appointment comes within that part of the amended section 12 of Article IV of our Constitution which provides: "If the Legislature is not in session, the Governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next session of the Legislature, at which time a majority of the members of the Legislature shall have the right to approve or disapprove the appointment."

Prior to the amendment, approval of appointments to this office were covered by the old section 11 of Article IV, which provided: "In case of a vacancy during the recess of the senate, in any office which is not elective, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate, when he shall nominate some person to fill such office; and any person so nominated, who is confirmed by the senate, (a majority of all the senators elected concurring by voting yeas and nays), shall hold his office during the remainder of the term, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified." (See, State ex rel Johnson v. Hagemeister, 161 Neb. 475).

Reference to the underlined language in the preceding paragraphs makes it clear that the 1972 amendments incorporated some entirely new and different language with respect to appointments. Our Court has said that "if a subsequent act on the same or a similar subject uses different terms in the same connection, a court must presume that a change in the law was intended," and that, "Where a law is amended or reenacted in different language, it will not be presumed that the difference was due to oversight or inadvertence by the Legislature, but it will be presumed that the language was intentionally changed to effect a change in the law itself." (Ledwith v. Bankers Life, 156 Neb. 107; Hills v. Burnett, 172 Neb. 370). Such rules are generally equally applicable to the interpretation of constitutional changes.

Under the new language, the Legislature has the right to "approve or disapprove" the appointment. If a majority of the members vote to approve, that is an end of the matter. If the motion is to approve and it does not receive the necessary majority, you have neither approved nor disapproved, because the constitutional language now in force says that a majority of the members shall have the right to approve or disapprove. If the motion is to disapprove, and it does not receive a majority, the Legislature has not disapproved him. If no further action is taken after the failure of a motion to disapprove (or after the failure of a motion to approve), then it is our view that the appointee will serve until the end of the term for which he has been appointed, because the new language in the constitution is that the appointment is "until the next session of the Legislature, at which time" you have the right to approve or disapprove. If the Legislature does not exercise that right during the time specified, we do not believe it can leave the matter undecided until subsequent sessions, and thus leave the appointee in doubt throughout the rest of his term.

In preparing this opinion, we have not overlooked the provisions of section 13 of Article VII of our Constitution. That section does not deal with the procedure to be followed by the Legislature. Procedure is covered by the amended sections in Article IV, as discussed above.

Very truly yours,

Opinion No. 57
May 21, 1973

Senator Glenn A. Goodrich
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Goodrich:

Your inquiry to this office deals with the question of the constitutionality of L. B. 315 pending before the Eighty-Third Legislature, First Session, and the further question of a definition of Law Enforcement Officer.

Although we believe that the concept of prohibiting law enforcement officers from being a licensee under the liquor control act is constitutional, L. B. 315 in its present form would be difficult to defend on the grounds of constitutionality.

The present liquor control act, section 53-110 and 53-111, R.R.S., 1943, provides that no commissioner, inspector or employee shall directly or indirectly have any interest in the manufacture, sale or distribution of alcoholic liquor, nor receive any compensation or profit therefrom; and in 53-111, it prohibits the accepting of emolument or employment by the liquor commission or its employees. State ex rel Beck v. Young, 154 Neb. 588, 48 N. W. 2d 677; State ex rel Meyer v. Sorrell, 174 Neb. 340, 117 N. W. 2d 872.

In American Jurisprudence Vol. 45 2d section 147 page 593, 594, it is stated:

> No one has an absolute or inherent right to a license to sell intoxicating liquor, the right to sell intoxicating liquor not being one of the privileges or immunities of a citizen of the United States. The issuance of a license to sell intoxicating liquor is a matter, not of right, but purely of legislative grace, and may be extended, limited, or denied without violating any constitutional right. Legislatures may lawfully grant the right to engage in the liquor traffic to a certain class or classes of persons and withhold it from all others, and no person may complain because liquor legislation has denied him the privilege of engaging in the liquor traffic, at least so long as he has not been arbitrarily discriminated against. Moreover, the legislative power of discrimination as between persons who may be permitted to sell intoxicating liquors is much broader than in case of callings less potentially harmful to the public, and legislation setting forth requirements for liquor licensees is not objectionable because persons pursuing other occupations are subjected to different requirements.

> In the exercise of its power to regulate the liquor traffic, a state may prescribe reasonable qualifications for holding a liquor license or permit. Applicants for liquor licenses must meet valid qualifications prescribed by statute and by rules and regulations of the licensing authorities. They are generally required to meet specified qualifications as to citizenship and residence, moral character, age, and sometimes as to sex. Some statutes also limit the right to sell intoxicating liquors to qualified electors, and forbid the issuance of liquor licenses to employees of the state or political subdivisions thereof. * * *

In Marcus v. State, Okl. 411 P. 2d 539; the constitution of the State of Oklahoma and a state statute provided that agents or employees of state or any political subdivision thereof could not engage in any phase of alcoholic beverage business. The statute and that part of the state constitution were attacked on the grounds that they were discriminatory and violated the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution in that it deprived the applicant of equal protection of the law by prohibiting the engagement in the liquor business and that it was an unreasonable exercise of its police power.

The Oklahoma supreme court quoted from various legal texts and from several cases and held that a legislature and a state constitution may lawfully grant right to engage in traffic of liquor to certain class or classes of persons and withhold it from others, and no person may complain because liquor legislation has denied him privilege of engaging in liquor traffic.

> * * (17) Peace officer includes sheriffs, constables, coroners, jailers, marshals, policemen, state highway patrolmen, members of the National Guard on active service by direction of the Governor during periods of emergency, and all other persons with similar authority to make arrests. * *

One immediate problem with the definition of peace officer is for the national guardsman who holds a liquor license and is then called on active service by the Governor, does he become ineligible and lose his license; also the phrase "and all other persons with similar authority to make arrests", does this mean private investigators, private store security policemen, are they ineligible to hold a license.

In Frazier v. Elmore, 173 S. W. 2d 563, 180 Tenn. 232, peace officer was the same as law enforcement officer whose duty it is to preserve the peace. But in People v. W., 249 N. E. 2d 882, 24 NY 2d 732, 302 N. Y. S. 2d 260, a probation officer is a peace officer but he is not a law enforcement officer. In People v. Cheathem, 69 Cal. Rpts. 679, 263, C.A. 2d 458, a statute permitting private citizens arrests do not turn the person into a law enforcement officer.

As the impact of the bill is to prohibit the holding of a license and is criminal in nature by imposing a fine up to one thousand dollars we believe that the term "law enforcement officer" is too ambiguous and lacks clear meaning. Likewise the word "interest" has many meanings depending upon the type of law it relates too, as money interest, rate of interest, family interest, legal interest, beneficial interest, percentage of interest.

A statute, to be valid, must not be vague, indefinite and uncertain. It must be sufficiently explicit to advise those whom it purports to affect as to what their rights are and how they will be affected by its operation. Statutes which are so incomplete, vague, indefinite and uncertain that men of ordinary intelligence must necessarily guess at their meaning and differ as to their application, will not be upheld by the Courts. State v. Nelson, 168 Neb. 394, 399, 95 N. W. 2d 678; State v. Pocras, 166 Neb. 642, 645, 90 N. W. 2d 623:

Opinion No. 58
May 21, 1973

Honorable Thomas C. Kennedy
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Kennedy:

You have requested our opinion concerning the legal status of L. B. 587. The bill generally would prohibit discrimination, by a motor vehicle fuel producer, refiner, manufacturer, or compounder, among its various retail outlets. Our analysis follows.

Sec. 1 of this bill prohibits discrimination, by a petroleum manufacturer, between independent firms and its own outlets and affiliates. We are of the opinion that the states may enact laws to prohibit discrimination among competitors, where that discrimination does not involve refusals to deal, which separate problem is discussed, infra.

There is, of course, a serious question concerning the definition of "discrimination," as that term is used in Sec. 1. There are many types of discrimination--price, service, rebate, etc. There are many reasons for price discrimination--to harm a competitor, to meet the localized price of a competitor, etc. Sec. 1 prohibits all discrimination, regardless of the circumstances. In our opinion, Sec. 1 would be subject to arguments that the section is vague and overbroad, and would be difficult to defend on constitutional grounds. See, Blue Flame Gas Association v. McCook P. P. Dist., 186 Neb. 735, 186 N. W. 2d 498; and Central Markets West, Inc. v. State, 186 Neb. 9, 180 N. W. 2d 880.

Sec. 2 expressly includes, among those protected "independent firms," those who have had a course of dealing, within one year prior to the date of the act, with the supply source, where that supply source has dealt with both independents and affiliates. Sec. 2 further provides that the supply source must continue to offer fuels to the independents, without price discrimination unless not cost-justified. In the event of a shortage of fuels, the supply source is required to apportion among all its customers.

Thus, Sec. 2 denies to fuel supply sources the right to refuse to continue dealing, with competitive customers, regardless of the reasons for such refusal (although Sec. 3 permits a refusal to continue to deal where the customer has failed to pay for prior purchases). A long established principle of anti-trust law is that a businessman is at liberty to refuse to deal with any person, regardless of his reasons therefor. See Cooley on Torts, p. 278, quoted in Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. v. Cream of Wheat Co., 227 F. 2d 46, 48 (CCA 5th, 1915); and Barish v. Chrysler Corp., 141 Neb. 157, 3 N. W. 2d 91.

Many recent cases have, however, limited this right of refusal to deal. See, e.g., United States v. Parke, Davis & Co., 362 U. S. 29, 4 L. Ed. 2d 505, 80 S. Ct. 503. In Parke-Davis, the court found a vertical conspiracy (between the manufacturer and certain of its customers) to fix prices, with the manufacturer refusing to deal with customers who did not follow the fixed-price schedules. The court held that where the price conspiracy itself was illegal, the weapons used to enforce the structure (e. g., the refusal to continue to deal) was illegal.

In Simpson v. Union Oil Co., 377 U. S. 13, 12 L. Ed. 2d 98, 84 S. Ct. 1051, the court held to be a violation of anti-trust laws, certain "consignment agreements which were used by the fuel manufacturer as a vehicle for resale price maintenance, with a refusal to deal with consignees who failed to follow the established resale price schedule.

On the subject of refusals to deal, generally see Callmann, The Law of Unfair Competition, Trademarks and Monopolies, sec. 37.1-37.2, Vol. 2, p. 87-107. Callmann suggests that refusals to deal will be permitted if they are "reasonable."

In summary of the above, it is our opinion that the Legislature may not unreasonably restrict the businessman's right to refuse to deal. Sec. 2 of the subject bill is not so limited, but attempts to strike down all refusals by certain petroleum suppliers. Nor do we find any cases which suggest that the manufacturer's practical inability to supply all its customers would not be a reasonable basis for a refusal to deal with some of them.

In summary of the above, it is our opinion that L. B. 587, Nebraska Legislature, 83rd Legislature, 1st Session (1973) would be difficult to defend on constitutional grounds.

Yours very truly,

Opinion No. 59
May 22, 1973

Senator George Syas
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Syas:

You have inquired if the Legislature can constitutionally provide a "different method of nominating and electing school boards in a Class III district that is within the confines of a metropolitan city and different laws that apply to Class III school districts that are outside a metropolitan city?" The same is hereinafter discussed.

Historically, the bulk of all statutory law was concerned with private or local matters. Indeed, some legal commenators have said that the private legislation originated in the dawn of parlimentary history. In colonial America it was the chief concern of legislators and it became increasingly prevalent in state assemblies during the early years of the 19th century. It became a concern because of certain matters which attended the growth of this type of legislation. Chiefly, it was said that the time spent in enacting special laws made it impossible for a legislature to give sufficient attention to matters of general concern. As a result, many states (including Nebraska), have embodied in their state constitutions certain prohibitions against special legislation. It is to be observed that Section 18 of Article III of the Constitution of Nebraska not only prohibits special or local legislation in certain specific situations but it also provides that "In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted."

Judicial interpretation of the above cited constitutional provision has removed most, if not all, ambiguity. The variety of legislative classifications which have been sustained as general laws is almost infinite. A group of cases of particular importance is that permitting the classification of municipalities and other governmental subdivisions on the basis of population. The Legislature, by using the legal device of classification, has been able in numerous instances to constitutionally enact certain measures which, though in fact operating only in certain cities or counties have been sustained by the Supreme Court of Nebraska as general laws. However, such laws, to be valid, must be general in form. In addition, provisions must be made for other governmental or political subdivisions, as the case may be, to come within the class designated. Futhermore, the legislative classification must be reasonable in order to be valid. Beyond that, it is difficult to state precise rules.

Obviously each legislative act must be judged on its own facts. In general, however, we are of the opinion that the Legislature can constitutionally enact a method of nominating and electing school boards in a Class III school district that is within the confines of a metropolitan city and can constitutionally enact a different method of nominating and electing school boards in a Class III school district whose territorial boundaries lies outside the confines of a metropolitan city provided any such legislation is within the spirit and meaning of the above stated rules.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE A. H. MEYER

Memo For: Governor Exon
Re: Flood Report
From: State Civil Defense Agency

1. Overall river conditions on the North and South Platte and eastward on the main body of the Platte remain essentially the same as yesterday. River levels have changed very little.

2. The original large crest which flowed down the South Platte is now flowing into the Missouri, which has reported a slight rise, but which is forecast to return to normal level within 36 hours.

3. A key factor on the North Platte continues to be at Glendo Reservoir, which is continuing to hold about two-thirds of its inflow, and letting out about one-third. This is maintaining the flow at Henry (State Line) at a level which raised the level only .06" since yesterday. However, Glendo's capacity is 795,196 acre feet and the present level is 723,621 a.f. This represents an increase of approximately 15,000 a.f. since yesterday.

4. It is hoped that, in the absence of heavy precipitation above McConaughy, the river will be lowered sufficiently in the next four or five days to increase the outflow from Glendo to keep from reaching full capacity at the reservoir.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 60
May 23, 1973

Senator David H. Stahmer
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator,

Your May 16 letter asks concerning the constitutionality of L. B. 533 "in the form it was advanced from General File to E & R Initial." Your specific interest concerns the "legality of having two types of governing boards, namely the type of organization for six of the districts that will be area districts, as compared with the organization of the governing board of the Omaha Technical Community College." In this reply we will necessarily confine ourselves to your specific question because of time limitations.

The concern appears to be with section 18 of Article III of our Constitution which deals with special legislation. That section prohibits special legislation in certain enumerated areas which are not involved here, and then concludes by providing that, "In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted." So in the present situation a determination must be made as to whether it is in fact special legislation, and if it is, is it justified under the guidelines provided by decisions of our Court.

To make the necessary determination, it is necessary to look at two sections of the bill. The first of these deals with dividing the entire state into seven technical community college areas. The boundaries of all but one of the areas are defined in terms of a combination of county boundaries, school district boundaries and precinct boundaries, but the seventh area is defined as comprising the area encompassed by Omaha School District Number One. We do not believe that the mere fact that one of the areas is defined in terms of a single school district would support a claim that division of the state in this manner constitutes special legislation. It seems most likely that there would be facts in the possession of the Legislature which would justify division of the state in this manner, including such factors as population, available educational resources and facilities, and community needs.

The second section involved could cause some concern because in each of the first six areas there is provision for election of an area board from among residents of each of those areas, but in the case of the seventh area it is provided that, "The technical community college board for the Omaha Nebraska Technical Community College Area shall be the board of education for the Class V school district whose territory comprises the technical community college area."

We conclude that this feature of the bill does not constitute "special legislation." Obviously the Legislature could not have made this a general provision, applicable to the other six areas as well. The seventh area is the only one in which a single public school board operates throughout the identical territory comprising the technical community college area. If at some future date the Legislature should decide to eliminate our existing school districts, and create only six districts coterminous with the other six technical community college areas, then a constitutional problem might arise if the same boards did not govern the schools and the colleges.

Our court has said that legislation applicable alone to a portion of the state is not for that reason forbidden by the Constitution, when there is a reasonable relation between the objects of the legislation and the area to which is applicable. In the situation now before you, the Legislature may well have information and facts available to it which in its judgement justify a determination that a school board is peculiarly suited to governing the affairs of this type of college. In this connection it must be kept in mind that our Court has taken the position in a number of situations that, "The power of classification rests with the legislature, and this power cannot be interfered with by the courts, unless it is clearly apparent that the legislature has by an artificial and baseless classification attempted to evade and violate the provisions of the constitution prohibiting special and local legislation."

Undoubtedly there are arguments which could be advanced challenging the validity of L. B. 533 as special legislation, but in our view the legal arguments on the other side have the greater weight.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Clarence A. H. Meyer
Attorney General

Mr. Carpenter offered the following amendments:

1. On page 5, line 1, add a new section two as follows:

"Sec. 2. That section 77-2715.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

77-2715.01. (1) On or before ~~November~~ October 15 of each year, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall set the rate of the income tax imposed by section 77-2715 for the taxable year beginning in the subsequent calendar year, and the rate of the sales tax imposed by subsection (1) of section 77-2703 which will be effective from January 1 through December 31 of the succeeding year.

(a) In fixing the rates, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall first determine the status of all fixed obligations for the biennium which must be financed from the receipts from the sales and use taxes, the individual and corporation income and franchise taxes and other miscellaneous receipts to the General Fund, from a certified statement of all appropriations made by the most recent regular session of the Legislature, which statement the Director of Administrative Services shall prepare and furnish prior to the convening of such board.

(b) If the Legislature should meet in a special session during any year, the board shall add to the appropriations as certified pursuant to subdivision (a) of this subsection, the appropriation for the legislative session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations.

(c) The board shall then determine the balance of the General Fund at the beginning of the period under consideration and the estimated receipts to the General Fund from all sources other than the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes for this period.

(d) The board shall then set the rates of the sales tax and income tax so that the estimated funds available pursuant to subdivision (c) of this subsection plus estimated receipts from the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes will be not less than five per cent in excess of the appropriations as determined pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of this subsection.

~~(e) The rates of the sales and income taxes shall be fixed so that the total sales and use taxes levied will as nearly as possible equal the total income and franchise taxes levied for the calendar year for which the rates so fixed will be effective.~~

~~(f)~~ (e) For purposes of this subsection, total sales and use taxes levied shall mean the total state sales and use tax liability of all taxpayers for the relevant period minus total food sales tax credits attributable to the same period. Total income and franchise taxes levied shall mean the total state income and franchise tax liability of all taxpayers for the relevant period, before deduction of food sales tax credits.

~~(g)~~ (f) The sales tax rate so fixed by the board shall be an increment of one half of one per cent, and the income tax rate so fixed shall be an increment of one per cent.

(2) The board shall meet within thirty days after each special session of the Legislature, and also within thirty days after receiving a report from the Tax Commissioner that there have been significant changes in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, or the rules and regulations issued under such laws, and shall determine whether the rates for sales tax and income tax must be changed. In making such determination the board shall recalculate the requirements pursuant to the formula set forth in subsection (1) of this section, taking into consideration the appropriations for such special session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations.

In the event the board determines the rates must be changed as a result of such special session or as a result of a change in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, and the rules and regulations issued under such laws, such sales tax rate shall be made effective at the beginning of any calendar month within the current calendar year and such income tax rate shall be effective for the current taxable year.".

SELECT FILE

LEGISLATIVE BILL 529. E & R amendments found in the Journal on page 1756 for the Eighty-fifth Day were adopted.

Mr. Warner offered the following amendments:

1. On page 58, after line 17, insert a new section as follows:

"Sec. 7. That section 77-2715.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

77-2715.01. (1) On or before November 15 of each year, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall set the rate of the income tax imposed by section 77-2715 for the taxable year beginning in the subsequent calendar year, and the rate of the sales tax imposed by subsection (1) of section 77-2703 which will be effective from January 1 through December 31 of the succeeding year.

Recognizing that an adequate cash flow is necessary to maintain the orderly implementation of various legislative acts, it is mandatory that the funding of those acts which have a fiscal impact beyond a current appropriations year be considered when setting the sales and income tax rates. Accordingly, the purpose of this subsection is to provide that the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall set rates based on appropriations, and the express obligations of the Legislature for the two succeeding calendar years following the rate setting date. Such action will provide an adequate cash flow, and the orderly implementation of the funding of acts as intended by the Legislature, and will eliminate drastic fluctuations in the state sales and income tax rates.

(a) In fixing the rates, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall first determine the status of all ~~fixed~~ appropriations, and express obligations for the ~~biennium~~ next two succeeding calendar years following the rate setting date, which must be financed from the receipts from the sales and use taxes, the individual and corporation income and franchise taxes and other miscellaneous receipts to the General Fund, from a certified statement of all appropriations, and express obligations for the next two succeeding calendar years following the rate setting date, made by the most recent regular session of the Legislature, which statement the Director of Administrative Services shall prepare and furnish prior to the convening of such board.

(b) If the Legislature should meet in a special session during any year, the board shall add to the appropriations and express obligations as certified pursuant to subdivision (a) of this subsection, the appropriation for the legislative session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations and express obligations.

(c) The board shall then determine the balance of the General Fund at the beginning of the period under consideration and the estimated receipts to the General Fund from all sources other than the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes for this period.

(d) The board shall then set the rates of the sales tax and income tax so that the estimated funds available pursuant to subdivision (c) of this subsection plus estimated receipts from the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes will be not less than five per cent in excess of the appropriations, and express obligations for the next two succeeding calendar years following the rate setting date, as determined pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of this subsection. The purpose of this subdivision is to insure that there shall be maintained in the state treasury an adequate General Fund balance, considering cash flow, to meet the appropriations and express obligations as certified in subdivision (a) of this subsection.

(e) The rates of the sales and income taxes shall be fixed so that the total sales and use taxes levied will as nearly as possible equal the total income and franchise taxes levied for the calendar year for which the rates so fixed will be effective.

(f) For purposes of this subsection, total sales and use taxes levied shall mean the total state sales and use tax liability of all taxpayers for the ~~relevant period~~ calendar year minus total food sales tax credits attributable to the same period. Total income and franchise taxes levied shall mean the total state income and franchise tax liability of all taxpayers for the ~~relevant period~~ calendar year, before deduction of food sales tax credits.

(g) The sales tax rate so fixed by the board shall be an increment of one half of one per cent, and the income tax rate so fixed shall be an increment of one per cent.

(h) For purposes of this section, express obligation shall mean an obligation which has fiscal impact identifiable by a sum certain or by an established percentage or other determinative factor or factors.

(2) The board shall meet within thirty days after each special session of the Legislature, and also within thirty days after receiving a report from the Tax Commissioner that there have been significant changes in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, or the rules and regulations issued under such laws, and shall determine whether the rates for sales tax and income tax must be changed. In making such determination the board shall recalculate the requirements pursuant to the formula set forth in subsection (1) of this section, taking into consideration the appropriations and express obligations for such special session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations.

In the event the board determines the rates must be changed as a result of such special session or as a result of a change in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, and the rules and regulations issued under such laws, such sales tax rate shall be made effective at the beginning of any calendar month within the current calendar year and such income tax rate shall be effective for the current taxable year.".

2. On page 58, line 19 strike "and"; after "77-2712," insert "and 77-2715.01,".

3. Renumber original section 7 as section 8.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise:

SENATOR CARPENTER: A matter of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point, Senator.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, I think this is quite important to you as members of this body. It's becoming accepted to a greater extent as time goes on that Senator Carpenter has everyone in this body afraid to the point of some kind of fear that I'm attempting, and do to some unknown degree, run this Legislature. I'd like to pose three questions. Number 1; those Senators who are in that category, if any, who are afraid of me because whatever unknown powers I might possess or not possess, are afraid of Senator Carpenter. Those who are in that category, I wish you'd stand up.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richendifer.

SENATOR RICHENDIFER: Mr. President, as a--being a member of the Four Horsemen, I'm definitely scared to death.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, will the Clerk record for the record that he is the only one who stood up and admitted that I had some strange power over him that he couldn't control. My friends, this is not asked in the degree of levity because it's not. This body has been put on an uncomfortable position by the words of others without only foundation of fact that many people are beginning to feel this is a fact of life in this Legislature. I know that it is not. I only wish that it was. Now the Number 2 question I would like to ask this body--how many Senators in this session has Senator Carpenter asked for your vote on anything? Will you please raise your hand? After all, if I have the power certainly I have to be effective to let you people know what I wanted. Will those Senators who I have asked as a personal request to vote for any bill that I have, will you raise your hand? I'd like to have the Clerk recall that there were none. Now let me say, if there are 25 members present this morning who feel that Senator Carpenter is somewhat of a detrimental influence on this body who really doesn't serve any good purpose and this body would be better off without him, I say and I would stand by it, if there are that number, I'll resign from this seat instantly. Those who might feel that, would you please stand? Now I'm not trying to embarrass you, this is important to both you and me. Let me say that I have, I presume, assumed those things which rightfully don't belong to me in the area only to attempt to expedite the business of this body and I can say to you honestly and sincerely, when I come back in January as I shall, the Lord willing, that I'm going to change my position. I'm going to change my activity, being that of a counterpuncher. I've been impressed by those who say they don't understand and I presume I'm one of those also. I think that from January on we have the responsibility to understand everything we do even though it might curtail the consideration of bills to the point, at least those we pass, we'll be able to say to our constituents, we understood it and to that extent I will dedicate myself to see that that happens. Thank you.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 23, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

Upon request from Senator Goodrich, I had delayed until this final day to act on LB 315.

Senator Goodrich had received an Attorney General's opinion indicating that there were potential constitutional questions in this act.

Senator Goodrich has reported to my office this afternoon that there seemed to be little support on the floor to recall this bill for further legislative consideration in spite of the Attorney General's opinion.

This is to advise you that I have therefore signed LB 315 into law as the Legislature has indicated by its original final vote of 33 to 11 on the measure.

You may wish to take possible corrective action on this measure in the next session.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon

SELECT FILE

LEGISLATIVE BILL 10. Mr. Warner offered the following amendments:

1. Strike sections 1 and 2 and insert:

"Section 1. That section 77-2715.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, as amended by section 7, Legislative Bill 529, Eighty-third Legislature, First Session, 1973, be amended to read as follows:

77-2715.01. (1) ~~On~~ Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, on or before November 15 of each year, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall set the rate of the income tax imposed by section 77-2715 for the taxable year beginning in the subsequent calendar year, and the rate of the sales tax imposed by subsection (1) of section 77-2703 which will be effective from January 1 through December 31 of the succeeding year.

Recognizing that an adequate cash flow is necessary to maintain the orderly implementation of various legislative acts, it is mandatory that the funding of those acts which have a fiscal impact beyond a current appropriations year be considered when setting the sales and income tax rates. Accordingly, the purpose of this subsection is to provide that the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall set rates based on appropriations and the express obligations of the Legislature for the two succeeding calendar years following the rate-setting date. Such action will provide an adequate cash flow, the orderly implementation of the funding of acts as intended by the Legislature, and eliminate drastic fluctuations in the state sales and income tax rates.

(a) In fixing the rates, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment shall first determine the status of all appropriations and express obligations for the next two succeeding calendar years following the rate-setting date which must be financed from the receipts from the sales and use taxes, the individual and corporation income and franchise taxes and other miscellaneous receipts to the General Fund, from a certified statement of all appropriations and express obligations for the next two succeeding calendar years following the rate-setting date made by the most recent regular session of the Legislature, which statement the Director of Administrative Services shall prepare and furnish prior to the convening of such board.

(b) If the Legislature should meet in a special session during any year, the board shall add to the appropriations and express obligations as certified pursuant to subdivision (a) of this subsection, the appropriation for the legislative session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations and express obligations.

(c) The board shall then determine the balance of the General Fund at the beginning of the period under consideration and the estimated receipts to the General Fund from all sources other than the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes for this period.

(d) The board shall then set the rates of the sales tax and income tax so that the estimated funds available purusant to subdivision (c) of this subsection plus estimated receipts from the sales, use, income, and franchise taxes will be not less than five per cent in excess of the appropriations and express obligations for the next two succeeding calendar years following the rate-setting date as determined pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of this subsection. The purpose of this subdivision is to insure that there shall be maintained in the state treasury an adequate General Fund balance, considering cash flow, to meet the appropriations and express obligations as certified as provided in subdivision (a) of this subsection.

(e) The rates of the sales and income taxes shall be fixed so that the total sales and use taxes levied will as nearly as possible equal the total income and franchise taxes levied for the calendar year for which the rates so fixed will be effective.

(f) For purposes of this subsection, total sales and use taxes levied shall mean the total state sales and use tax liability of all taxpayers for the calendar year minus total food sales tax credits attributable to the same period. Total income and franchise taxes levied shall mean the total state income and franchise tax liability of all taxpayers for the calendar year, before deduction of food sales tax credits.

(g) The sales tax rate so fixed by the board shall be an increment of one half of one per cent, and the income tax rate so fixed shall be an increment of one per cent.

(h) For purposes of this section, express obligation shall mean an obligation which has fiscal impact identifiable by a sum certain or by an established percentage or other determinative factor or factors.

(2) The board shall meet within thirty days after each special session of the Legislature, and also within thirty days after receiving a report from the Tax Commissioner that there have been significant changes in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, or the rules and regulations issued under such laws, and shall determine whether the rates for sales tax and income tax must be changed. In making such determination the board shall recalculate the requirements pursuant to the formula set forth in subsection (1) of this section, taking into consideration the appropriations and express obligations for such special session, all miscellaneous claims, deficiency bills, and all emergency appropriations.

In the event the board determines the rates must be changed as a result of such special session or as a result of a change in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto, other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, and the rules and regulations issued under such laws, such sales tax rate shall be made effective at the beginning of any calendar month within the current calendar year and such income tax rate shall be effective for the current taxable year.

(3) For the taxable year commencing January 1, 1973, the individual income tax rate shall be thirteen per cent.

Sec. 2. That original section 77-2715.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, as amended by section 7, Legislative Bill 529, Eighty-third Legislature, First Session, 1973, is repealed.".

2. In the title, strike lines 2 to 6 and amendments thereto and insert:

"FOR AN ACT to amend section 77-2715.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, as amended by section 7, Legislative Bill 529, Eighty-third Legislature, First Session, 1973, relating to taxation; to set the individual income tax rate for 1973; and to repeal the original section.".

The amendments were adopted with 25 ayes, 16 nays and 8 not voting.

BILLS ON FINAL READING

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 23.

WHEREAS, the sweeping judgment of the United States Supreme Court in the Texas and Georgia abortion cases expressly deprived the unborn of legal and constitutional protection during their gestation; and

WHEREAS, such judicial holding condones the destruction of an entire class of live human beings; and

WHEREAS, in states in which abortion laws have recently been relaxed or repealed, professional medical ethics and respect for unborn human life have proved to be wholly inadequate for the reasonable protection of the lives of the unborn; and

WHEREAS, a legal threat to the right to life of any individual member of a society imperils the right to life of every other member of that society; and

WHEREAS, human life in all stages is entitled to the protection of the laws and may not be abridged by act of any court or legislature or by any judicial interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the issue is of such great magnitude – the extent to which human life itself is protected under the Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature of this state believes it to be in the best interest of the people of the United States that an amendment to the Constitution of the United States be adopted to protect unborn human lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Congress of the United States take appropriate action to adopt a Constitutional Amendment that will guarantee the explicit protection of all unborn human life by extending the appropriate constitutional rights, including due process of law, which apply to the unborn in an appropriate manner and to the same extent as all other citizens of the United States, and will guarantee that no human life will be denied protection of law or deprived of life on account of age, sickness, stage of development, or condition of dependency or wantedness.

2. That the Clerk of the Legislature transmit a copy of this Resolution to the President of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, each member of the Nebraska Congressional delegation, each member of the United States

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Carpenter announced that the Executive Board would meet at 12:00 noon today for a short time.

MOTION—Return LB 587 to Select File

Mr. Kennedy moved to return LB 587 to Select File for the following specific amendment:

1. Strike sections 1 to 8 and insert the following:

"Section 1. For purposes of this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) Supplier shall mean any person who produces, refines, manufactures, compounds, imports, or stores for use, sale, distribution or delivery in the State of Nebraska any energy source.

(2) Energy source shall mean gasoline, fuel oil, natural gas, propane, coal, special fuels, and electricity.

Sec. 2. The Legislature finds that Nebraska is now experiencing an emergency situation in the area of energy sources and that the next few months may be expected to pose threats of calamity to the economy of the state. In view of the fuel crisis and the realization that the loss of the independent dealer would drastically affect competition and normal market conditions in Nebraska, it is the declared policy of the Legislature that it is necessary to regulate and control the sale and distribution of energy sources within the state for the purpose of avoiding monopolistic advantages and unfair trade practices. Any supplier who within one year prior to the effective date of this act has sold or distributed any such energy sources within this state either wholly to independent firms or partly by sale to independent firms and partly by distribution through its own outlets or affiliated company or companies shall continue to offer such energy sources for sale to independent firms without price or terms discrimination except for actual differences in cost. If any fuel shortage requires any such person to restrict the sale and distribution thereof, the available supply shall be apportioned among the independent firms and its own outlets or affiliates in the same porportion during the period of shortage as such sales or distributions were made during the period when such restrictions were unnecessary. Any supplier shall keep in the state adequate records to establish whether or not any violation of this act occurs. Such records shall be available for inspection during regular business hours. This section shall be operative for a period of one year commencing with the effective date of this act.

Sec. 3. The bona fide refusal to sell to any person for the reason that payment for previous sales to such person has not been received within such time period as has been established by any contract or previous dealings between such supplier and person, shall not constitute a violation of this act.

Sec. 4. Any violation or threatened violation of this act may be enjoined in a suit by the administrator or by any person who has been damaged by such violation, in the district court of any county in this state in which such violation occurs or is threatened to occur or in the district court of any county in this state in which the supplier has an office or does business.

Sec. 5. If any supplier ceases to do business in this state as a means of avoiding compliance with the provisions of this act, such person shall not be permitted to conduct such business within this state for a period of fifteen years. This section shall not apply for the first five years that a person has commenced such business in the state.

Sec. 6. Any person damaged by any violation of this act may recover his damages together with all costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Sec. 7. The Tax Commissioner shall require from each supplier any information pertaining to the supply and distribution of energy sources to be used within the state. The information shall be furnished within the times specified by the Tax Commissioner.

Sec. 8. For the six-month periods beginning on April 1 and October 1 of each year, each supplier shall file a statement which indicates any anticipated change in quantity of energy sources which he will supply for such six-month period. The statement shall be filed at least six months prior to the beginning of any reporting period. If at any time subsequent to filing the statement, the supplier receives any additional information affecting the accuracy of the statement, he shall amend the statement within fifteen days of receiving such information. Included in the statement shall be an explanation of the causes for the changes in the distribution patterns.

Sec. 9. Any supplier who fails to furnish the information required by this act shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this act and be fined five hundred dollars for each violation. Upon notice of a violation to the supplier, he shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars per day until such information is provided.

Sec. 10. All suppliers shall comply with the guidelines established for the distribution of energy by the federal government.

Sec. 11. The Tax Commissioner shall administer the provisions of this act and shall promulgate the necessary rules and regulations therefor.

Sec. 12. If any section in this act or any part of any section shall be declared invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration of invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

Sec. 13. Since an emergency exists, this act shall be in full force and take effect, from and after its passage and approval, according to law.".

The motion prevailed with 27 ayes, 0 nays and 22 not voting.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 25, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I return herewith LB 246 without my signature and with my objections.

While some upward adjustment in salaries for some constitutional officers would be in order, it appears that a 66% jump in the salary of the State Treasurer from $15,000 to $25,000, a 56% increase in the salary of the State Auditor and Secretary of State from $16,000 to $25,000, and 33% increase for the Attorney General from $24,000 to $32,500, are excessive.

Such salary increases for constitutional officers would place Nebraska considerably above both the national averages for such positions and far above the similar positions in our neighboring states. When we are attempting to fight inflationary pressures, the state should set a reasonably example.

It is well known that this bill was originally envisioned to raise the Governor's compensation 40% from $25,000 to $35,000, and when my objections were made known, the Governor's portion was eliminated. This has not changed my objections to such large increases.

We should be ever mindful that such substantial increases to only a few constitutional officers is not the only point. When such jumps occur, the assistants to such officials traditionally also receive large increases, and a chain reaction sets in. Therefore, I consider this action by the majority of the Legislature less than prudent.

It is my hope that this matter can be put over to the next session when more reasonable increases can be explored and possibly enacted.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

May 25, 1973

Senator Ernest Chambers, Chairman
Military, Government & Veteran's Affairs Committee
Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator and Members of the Legislature:

My deputy, Ralph Englert, the local election officials and I wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the Government Committee and the Legislature for the approval of the package of election bills during the 83rd Legislature, First Session.

These bills were important pieces of Legislation. Of even more importance is the fact that these election bills were approved by your body this session so that they can be properly implemented prior to the 1974 election year. This is a real asset especially to the local election officials.

I want to compliment the Legislature for its patience and understanding on these very difficult and complex matters. It is important to note that Nebraska has not had an election contest for some 25 years.

This is a real tribute to the Legislature for keeping election laws current with changing situations and consistent with court opinions. We are extremely proud of this Legislative body for their cooperation in this regard.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALLEN J. BEERMANN
Secretary of State

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 88.

Introduced by Burbach, 19th District.

WHEREAS, in 1965 this Legislature adopted Legislative Bill 125, amending Section 77-1226.02 of the Nebraska statutes to accord certain privileges to Nebraska citizens to induce them to warehouse in Nebraska; such 1965 act being designed to encourage and broaden Nebraska's economic base; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the State of Nebraska in a recent case interpretation of Section 77-1226.02 has stated that it recognized the 1965 intent of the Legislature, but in its opinion was unable to apply the amended language of said section in a form to comply with the legislative intent; and

WHEREAS, the import of this Supreme Court opinion tends to place taxing authority in the hands of parties outside government or its subdivisions, and permit these third parties to collect a fee for the privilege of utilizing the exemption of Section 77-1226.02; and it further appears from such court interpretation that the State of Nebraska is left in the position of discriminating against its own citizens in deference to foreign business storing merchandise in the State for later shipment to other states.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1) That it is and was the view, intent and will of the Legislatures in this session and in the session of 1965, by the additions and deletions incorporated in Legislative Bill 125 to Section 77-1226.02, to provide two separate and distinct classes of bonded and licensed warehouses, one public and one private, for the storage of goods, wares and merchandise in this state that are in-transit or for shipment to final destination outside the state, and for exemption of such goods, wares and merchandise from ad valorem taxation in this state.

2) The Legislature has further clarified its view, intent and will expressed in the session of 1965 by the passage of Legislative Bill 534 in this session.

WHEREFOR, the Legislature points out to the citizens of Nebraska that the interpretation of the Supreme Court of Nebraska of Section 77-1226.02 creates an economic hardship on the citizens of the State of Nebraska, deprives them of equal treatment under the laws of the State of Nebraska, and places them in an unfair competitive position with their counterparts in the other states.

Mr. Burbach asked unanimous consent to consider LR 88 at this time. No objections. So ordered.

LR 88 was adopted with 28 ayes, 1 nay and 20 not voting.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I am returning herewith LB 236 without my signature and with my objections.

I am vetoing this bill because it greatly compromises our efforts to obtain a uniform and equitable pay and classification plan for the employees of Nebraska state government and would allow the continued widening of the gap between those with high and low salaries.

For all too many years, efforts to establish such a plan have failed for one reason or another. There have been gross inequities primarily affecting the average employees. We have now taken a step forward in insuring just and equal pay for state employees with the passage of LB 259 and LB 545. Let us not now dash those efforts just because a few college and University administrators wish the right to continue past policies which have proven unfair to lower paid workers.

Passage of LB 236 would greatly reduce the scope and extent of our success. In exempting the agencies listed therein, this bill removes some 5,700 positions from the standards established by the Nebraska Classification and Pay Plan. Most unfortunate is the fact that these are many of the very positions we should be continually striving to guarantee uniform pay and classification schedules. It should be understood that the personnel system does not direct itself to agency directors, college professors, and management people. It does affect clerks, secretaries, receptionists, and laborers, the very level of positions your honorable body has time and again recognized as being discriminated against in the application of annual salary increases. You recognized this in 1971-72 when you allowed an across-the-board increase of $300 for each employee regardless of salary. You again made recognition of the disparity in annual salary increases by allowing $200 plus 2½% in 1972-73. Both of these efforts were made for one purpose, giving the lower salaried people a greater increase than they would have received under the old system of a fixed percentage of increase.

In analyzing the effort of the classification and pay plan, it was determined that of the 13,772 filled positions in the fall of 1972, 9,102 were at a salary of $7,000 or less per annum. Since nearly all of the 5,700 positions affected by LB 236 fall within that range, this bill in effect removes about 60% of that very group we have tried so hard to protect.

Some of the agencies affected by this bill have stated that they have every intention of following the pay plan even though they are not required to do so. If that be the case, why not require it?

In 1970, the Supreme Court held that the Legislature could adopt whatever spending limits it so desired. The question at that time involved the establishment of personal services ceilings within operational programs. The court held that the Legislature did in fact have complete authority in establishing such spending guidelines.

I am very concerned about the long-range effect of LB 236 if it becomes law. It would have a very demoralizing effect on those state employees losing their last chance on employment equity. Such passage will revert 5,700 positions back to the multiple standards which have existed in the past. I think you will agree that we cannot allow that to happen.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I wish to advise that on Friday last, I have reluctantly signed into law LB 87 providing for the transfer of some $384,000 of state highway construction funds to the counties for replacement of substandard bridges.

While doing this, the Legislature has provided no replacement funds to the state highway department and the construction program is therefore curtailed by this amount.

I also note that despite my request, LB 87 did not provide standby authority for this administration to issue up to $10 million in highway construction bonds should some present unforeseen emergency occur.

Let the record show that despite my request, the Legislature failed to grant this standby authorization.

May 30, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I return herewith LB 472 without my signature and with my objections. A prime factor in this decision is that this $100 million plus state tax increase bill was amended, cleverly and without general knowledge of the public or presumably most Senators, to eliminate the key spending lid widely heralded by its principal proponents as guaranteeing long-term property tax relief.

I wish to advise your honorable body that I have signed into law LB 172 providing a $20 million increase in state school aid and for some property tax relief. This bill employs Federal revenue sharing funds as I had suggested in two previous messages to you and is a proper use of such funds. Enactment of LB 172, while eliminating a chance at a reduction in the state sales tax from 2½ to 2% next year as I outlined as one possibility in my message of April 16, is legislation that will not cause an increase in state sales and income tax rates.

LB 472 is quite another matter and among its most obvious shortcomings are:

(1) A mandated 40% increase in the state sales tax and a 33% increase in the income tax next year.

(2) No spending limit whatsoever on school expenditures after the first two years. A review of past efforts to provide real property tax relief through increased state sales and income taxes for aid to education without enforceable spending limitations have proved futile.

(3) LB 472 as passed is a scheme to shift unfairly a large tax burden to the average and lower income Nebraskan to the benefit of the more affluent. The measure, for example, would provide that business and corporate interests would receive an average initial tax break of $1.50 on property for every $1.00 of increased sales and income taxes paid while homeowners would pay increased sales and income taxes at the rate of $2.00 for every $1.00 in real estate savings.

(4) Unlike almost all other states enacting or considering property tax relief, the renter is required to pay more in sales and income taxes with no guarantee of even a penny in relief.

In any override attempt, the Legislature is being placed in a unique position Friday by the last minute parliamentary maneuverings of Senator Warner. You are being asked to cut the income tax rate two points from 15 to 13% retroactively rather than to accept my suggestion that such rates possibly be reduced by up to 5 points from 15% to 10% by the customary action of the State Board of Equalization this November. At the same time, the Legislature is being asked to raise the sales and income tax next year to fund LB 472. I hope that the Legislature will concur that reducing taxes this year while mandating a substantial increase next year is not in keeping with sound management of the state fiscal policies.

Opinion No. 61
May 31, 1973

Senator Thomas C. Kennedy
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Kennedy:

You have inquired if a technical community college board has authority to sell real property upon which a structure has been constructed for resale by students as a part of their regular course of study. In connection therewith, you also ask for possible guidelines.

It is well settled law that school districts may contract only respecting objects and to the extent the laws permit. See, inter alia, American Surety Co. of New York v. School Dist. No. 64 of Douglas County, 117 Neb. 6, 219 N. W. 583 (1928). Consequently, we examined the several statutes pertaining to the operation of technical community colleges. Our examination, however, disclosed no authority whereby the board of a technical community college area could lawfully sell real property upon which a structure has been constructed for resale by students as a part of their regular course of study. Consequently we must conclude that community college boards are without authority to do so. If this property is to be sold, we suggest that appropriate legislation is needed. We would be most willing to work with you and the bill drafter in connection therewith.

Opinion No. 62
May 31, 1973

Senator Terry Carpenter
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator Carpenter:

In your letter of May 29, 1973, you ask some questions relating to L. B. 114 and to the present reading of some of the sections of the statutes which would be amended by L. B. 114. Some of the amendments made by L. B. 114 deal with procedural matters, and we will not discuss these matters, because we do not believe that this is what you are inquiring about.

Your first question is whether there are presently constitutional difficulties with Section 77-202.13(4), R. S. Supp., 1972. This provides for a homestead exemption in 1973 of the first 25 percent, and in 1974 and each year thereafter, the first 50 percent of the tax on the homestead of certain specified over-65, low income persons, but not to exceed a maximum exemption of $125.00 in 1973 and $250.00 in 1974 and each year thereafter. While there is a presumption of constitutionality of statutes passed by the Legislature, we feel that there may be some difficulty in defending the constitutionality of this provision, and the court could well hold it to be invalid.

Article VIII, Section 2 of the Nebraska Constitution provides in part:

> "* * *. No property shall be exempt from taxation except as provided in the Constitution. The Legislature may by general law provide that a portion of the value of any residence actually occupied as a homestead by any classification of owners as determined by the Legislature shall be exempt from taxation."

The question we have to answer is whether the language in the present statute complies with the homestead exemption language in the constitutional provision quoted above, as, if it does not, it is forbidden by the first sentence of the above quotation. The first thing that we note with respect to the present statutory language is that it provides for the exemption of a portion of the tax on the homestead, rather than upon a portion of the value of the homestead which is the language used in the Constitution. It can be argued that whether the exemption is a portion of the tax or a portion of the value is immaterial, and translates into the same result. However, this argument is considerably weakened by the provision for a maximum exemption of $125.00 in 1973 and $250.00 in 1974. It is readily apparent that the percentage of exemption is dependent upon the size of the mill levy where the homestead is located. If the homestead is located in an area where the mill levy is low, 25 percent of the tax might not amount to $125.00, and therefore the exemption would be 25 percent of the tax, and hence, of the value of the homestead. On the other hand, in an area where the mill levy was high, 25 percent of the tax on a homestead of exactly the same value might amount to $250.00, only $125.00 of which would be allowable, and, in that situation, the exemption would amount to only 12½ percent of the value of the homestead.

What this amounts to, in effect, is classification of taxpayers on the basis of the size of the mill levy applicable to the property. The Constitution authorizes classification of owners as determined by the Legislature, but we believe that it is questionable whether the court would uphold classification based upon the size of the mill levy. For this reason we entertain some doubt as to the validity of the present statute.

L. B. 114 amends Section 77-202.13 to read in part as follows:

> "All homesteads in this state shall be assessed for taxation the same as other property, except that there shall be exempt from taxation * * * (4) in 1973, the first ninety per cent of the first seventy-five hundred dollars of the actual value of any homestead, and in 1974 and each year thereafter the first ninety per cent of the first fifteen thousand dollars of the actual value of any homestead of persons qualifying under subdivision (4) of section 77-202.12. * * *."

As you can see, this provision eliminates the constitutional objections we pointed out in connection with the present statute. This exemption would be based upon a percentage of the value of the homestead, rather than the amount of the tax, which is in strict compliance with the language of the Constitution, although, as we said, an exemption of a portion of the tax, without limitations, probably could be sustained. We do not believe that the limitation of the values to which the percentage shall be applied is subject to the same criticism as the limitation on the amount of tax. The classification under L. B. 114 is not based upon the size of the mill levy, but is uniform throughtout the state, even though, of course, the effect of the exemption will vary according to mill levy. This, however, would be true even if no dollar limitation were applied.

You also ask whether the passage of L. B. 114 would create any legal or constitutional problems that do not presently exist. We do not perceive any such problems, and believe that the provisions of L. B. 114 which we have discussed herein can be successfully defended.

Very truly yours,

STATE OF NEBRASKA
EXECUTIVE OFFICE
LINCOLN
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Midwest is presently encountering a shortage of all types of fuel; and

WHEREAS at the present time such shortage can be alleviated only by a reduction in use of all types of fuel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. James Exon, Governor of the State of Nebraska, call upon the citizens of Nebraska government, business, industry, and private citizens to consider implementing the following voluntary conservation measures to help curtail possible serious fuel shortages:

All home and building owners should maintain properly adjusted heating and cooling systems, inspect insulation to be certain of its adequacy, and whenever possible, reduce the use of electricity and air conditioning; and

Commuters should try to use mass transit or form car pools; and

Motorists should drive at lower speeds on high-speed roadways; accellerate slowly and smoothly from a start; drive at steady, moderate pace; turn off engine when stopped for more than a minute at bridges, train crossings, or in stalled traffic; keep engines properly tuned; properly inflate tires; consider the necessity of every trip; plan trips to reduce excessive mileage and driving; lighten cars by removing unnecessary weight from trunks, and limit the use of air conditioners and other fuel-consuming accessories; and

Commercial truckers should attempt to carry reasonable loads, use the most direct routes, and turn off engines when waiting in terminals or for periods of over a minute; and Agricultural and commercial operations with private stocks of gasoline should guard against evaporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed.

DONE at the State Capitol, Lincoln, this 23rd day of May in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Three.

This is to inform your honorable body that I have today signed LB 256 with some objections which I am detailing herewith.

I have eliminated all funds for the Adult Evaluation Center, the two medium-minimum facilities and the Juvenile Diagnostic Center.

The only penal reform legislation affecting programs which was introduced this session was introduced at my request. Unfortunately, no program policies were passed and the only thing in this area enacted was massive and not well thought out new facilities construction.

It appears that the bricks and mortar approach has consumed the thinking of some. Furthermore, we had heard a great deal about the availability of federal funds for construction but in none of the appropriations are any federal funds other than revenue sharing used.

I have vetoed the above projects because they are more expensive than necessary, or as in the case of the Juvenile Diagnostic Center, totally unnecessary. Adequate facilities presently exist for juvenile diagnosis. May I refer you to my more reasonable and moderate constructive program and suggest that if you are truly interested in penal reform, you will next session pass both my program and construction recommendations. A key part of my suggestions was that we locate a single reformatory type facility halfway between Lincoln and Omaha. This would eliminate expensive duplication of staff.

At the University we have reduced the appropriation for a Life Science facility to the level of my original recommendation. There is no need for a totally new facility when a combination of new and a remodeled facility will serve just as well. We have also eliminated funds to demolish Stout Hall which had been put in as part of the expanded Life Science recommendation.

At UNO we left all the funds (totaling nearly $6 million) added to my recommendation with the exception of funds for a central utility plant. This can be built with bonds and paid from the resultant operating savings. My actions have the approval of the UNO administration.

At Scottsbluff we left all additions in except land acquisition. Until a final determination is made on whether or not the state will acquire Hiram Scott, we should not purchase land since we would get a substantial amount of land with Hiram Scott if we eventually acquire it.

Finally, we have eliminated all revenue sharing fund support for recreational access roads. We have always maintained and still maintain that adequate cash funds exist for that purpose. As a matter of fact there is presently a balance of such funds available for construction.

All other funds added by your Appropriations Committee or by floor amendment have been left as you approved them.

I should also point out that passage of LB 256 with the above objections still makes a $7.3 million commitment on the state in 1974-75 and a $2.1 million commitment in 1975-76 in addition to the $16.9 provided for 1973-74.

These figures are in addition to the appropriations for the field house and fairgrounds approved last year. Because of the large commitments in the future years extreme discretion and restraint will be required.

I hope that you will accept my reductions as a reasonable compromise between the levels of funding hoped for by each of us.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. James Exon

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Anderson asked unanimous consent to have the following printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

June 1, 1973

The Honorable Gary Anderson
State Senator
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Anderson:

Thank you for your letter of May 31, 1973.

Your efforts and inquiry as to my positions are appreciated. I salute your efforts in considering passage of sound legislation.

You are aware of my concern for passing measures that on one hand attempt to direct temporary tax decreases, while at the same time the Legislature is considering enactment of multi-million dollar expenditures that dictate tax increases. While there can be honest differences on what are proper expenditures, I believe we must act with prudence. I am not unalterably opposed to providing a retroactive income tax reduction from 15% to 13% to January 1, 1973, provided other legislative action squares with conservative decisions on spending matters.

A tax cut now of 2 percentage points, or my suggestion of a possible reduction of up to 5% by the State Board of Equalization for next year amount to irresponsibility, if we entertain a brief pause before the tax dam is broken and a new flood comes tumbling down on Nebraska sales and income taxpayers. I have been fighting for three years to keep expenditures and taxes in line and I don't propose to give up now. My position then is that any decrease can be responsibly entertained, only if the legislature confirms my veto of LB 472, accepts the reductions in LB 256 and acts responsibly on other matters.

It is possible that if the recommended actions are followed we might still effect some reduction and still fund the pending increase in homestead exemptions for senior citizens.

I must reserve my final judgement until after reflecting upon all final legislative actions.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

MOTION—Advise Governor

Mr. Kremer moved that a committee of five be appointed to advise the Governor that the Eighty-third Legislature, First Session of the Nebraska State Legislature is about to complete its work, and to return with any message the Governor may have for the Legislature. The motion prevailed with 28 ayes, 0 nays and 21 not voting.

The Chair appointed Mrs. Marsh, Messrs. Schmit, Kelly, Johnson and Epke to serve on said Committee.

The Committee escorted Governor Exon to the rostrum, where he delivered the following message:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislature.

It's a real pleasure, more than you realize, to accept your invitation to speak briefly before your adjournment. I feel like a man who has been granted a six month furlough!

Seriously speaking, it is obvious that this has been a tough session for both Legislators and your Governor.

While I have agreed with your actions and signed into law some 350 bills, I have objected at least ten times. That is not a bad record of agreement.

The fact remains that when I have objected, I have not done so timidly. Such is not my nature, because when I take a stand. . . . I take a firm stand and do not apologize to anyone. If thirty of you disagree, as you sometimes do, our built-in checks and balances take over and the bill becomes law. . . . that's what our form of government is all about.

Let me compliment your honorable body for some truly outstanding legislation you have enacted, including, but not limited, to the following:

LB 333--insuring a uniform state pay plan and fairer salaries for the state's dedicated lower paid employees and a companion measure standardizing vacations and employee insurance programs long overdue in Nebraska.

The passage of increased appropriations in state funds for the mentally retarded programs by some 35% and improvements at the Beatrice State Home are worthy accomplishments. We are proceeding with our efforts to convince the Federal Government that they should not reduce their commitment in this area.

Our joint agreement to provide an additional $20 million in aid to education and providing some real property tax relief is commendable, as was your acceptance of increasing retired teacher benefits.

LB 524, expanding the Parole Board, will assist in our continuing efforts in better penal reform policies and programs. The professionals you have authorized here were much needed.

The legislative action in repealing the mandatory sale of school lands was an especially laudable measure and corrected a mistake made many years ago.

Our restoration of limited capital punishment legislation in Nebraska is a sound measure that I believe can withstand possible constitutional questioning.

I congratulate your honorable body for elimination of the "Wyoming Clause" in our environmental control laws.

You recognized the need to crack down on drunken driving convictions by tightening probation.

Now, on the other side of the ledger, I would like to mention the following matters which were not passed and hopefully will receive your favorable attention next session.

Despite statistics which showed higher speeds on the state highway system had contributed to more deaths and serious injuries, you again refused to reduce such nighttime speeds back to 60 M.P.H. There are other measures in this area that we have recommended and would be helpful in arresting this serious problem.

Although I recommended legislation regarding our weak sexual psycopath laws, no bill was passed.

We have additionally recommended a package of bills through the Judiciary Committee for program-oriented further improvements and to further accelerate the administration's penal reform commitments. They need passage next year.

There are other important matters that I will suggest to you in 1974.

In the meantime, regardless of our differences on some key items, I thank you for your efforts on behalf of the people of our Great State of Nebraska. We do enjoy "The Good Life".

God bless you and he willing, we will all meet here again next January to continue deliberations.

The Committee escorted Governor Exon from the Chamber.

MOTION—Sine Die Adjournment

Mr. Proud moved that the Journal for the Ninetieth Day, as prepared by the Clerk, be approved, and that the Eighty-third Legislature, First Session of the Legislature, having finished all business before it, now at 4:09 p.m., we adjourn sine die. The motion prevailed with 28 ayes, 0 nays and 21 not voting.

RECEIVED AFTER ADJOURNMENT

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR DELIVERED TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

June 2, 1973

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I am returning herewith LB 366 without my signature and with my objections.

I am returning LB 366 because this legislative action would cause increased retail prices to consumers. Although this bill has merit in some areas, it includes a price-fixing measure.

It is my feeling that the state should limit its involvement in the free enterprise system.

Hopefully, if this measure is resubmitted next year, the objectionable provision will be eliminated or placed in a separate bill to stand on its own merits.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor

The Honorable Allen J. Beermann
Secretary of State
State of Nebraska

Pursuant to the Constitution, I am herewith transmitting the bills which I have vetoed along with my objections. The following bills were vetoed by me on June 2, 1973: 366 and 529.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

I am returning herewith LB 529 without my signature and with my objections.

It is with a certain amount of reluctance that I have vetoed LB 529. This bill was introduced at my request on behalf of the Department of Revenue. As passed it contains 11 areas of change within our sales tax law which not only we, but your Revenue Committee, felt were needed. Possibly these can be adopted at some future time.

I have vetoed LB 529 because of section 16 which requires the State Board of Equalization and Assessment to consider obligations for two calendar years into the future. The effect of this would be at some time in the future to create large balances in anticipation of large delayed spending programs.

If the state in the future decides to embark on a massive delayed spending program which will mandate tax increases, then the Governor should request and/or the Legislature should pass the necessary tax rates at the time of adopting the program. The alternative route as provided by section 16 of this bill causes a nonresponsible separation of expenditure and taxing procedures.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. James Exon
Governor
